Plaintiff also requests monetary sanctions. On September 10, 2026, LACMTA filed an opposition. On September 16, 2026, Plaintiff filed a reply.

The Court has reviewed the moving papers, opposition, and reply. The Court does not reach the merits at this time.

The Motion to Compel is CONTINUED to November 9, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Department F-46.

Before the continued hearing, counsel are ordered to meet and confer in person, not by email or letter, within 21 calendar days of this order, regarding the identification of LACMTA's PMQ witness or witnesses and the categories each will address, specific dates on which the witness or witnesses are available for deposition, the scope of the remaining disputed categories of examination, and the scope of the remaining disputed document requests and production.

The parties shall file a joint statement of remaining issues no later than five court days before the continued hearing.
