RULING:

The Court grants all six unopposed Motions, as prayed.

The Court will complete, sign and file the proposed Orders received-stamped on August 21, 2026.

Plaintiff to give notice.

ANALYSIS:

By six Motions of YOUNA KANG (Plaintiff), filed on August 21, 2026, Plaintiff requests the following Order provisions:

1. Compelling HANGWOO LEE, SEO YEON SON, and IRWIN SANGWOO LEE (Defendants), to serve responses to Plaintiff's Form Interrogatories (General), Set One, and Requests for Production of Documents, Set One, without objections.

2. Requiring Defendants and counsel of record to pay a monetary sanction in the amount of $2,310.00 to Plaintiff, for each Motion.

The Motions are pursuant to C.C.P. § 2030.290, on the grounds that Defendants failed to provide any responses to those specified discovery requests.

A motion to compel initial discovery responses need only show that discovery was properly served on the opposing party, the time to respond expired, and no response was served. (Leach v. Superior Court (1980) 111 Cal.App.3d 902, 905-906; Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290 [compelling initial interrogatory responses], 2031.300 [compelling initial document requests].) A motion to compel initial discovery responses need not show good cause, meeting and conferring, or timely filing, and need not be accompanied by a separate statement. (Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting, Inc. v. Pac. Healthcare Consultants (2007) 148

Cal.App.4th 390, 404.)

The burden of justifying any failure to respond to discovery requests remains at all times with the responding party. (E.g., Williams
v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 541.)

Monetary discovery sanctions are mandatory as to parties losing discovery motions, unless courts find substantial justification or other injustice. (Deck v. Devs. Inv. Co.
(2023) 89 Cal.App.5th 808, 830.)

Here, Defendants have filed no Opposition to show substantial justification for their failures to serve discovery responses to the duly served requests.

Therefore, the Court grants the unopposed Motions and will sign and complete the proposed Orders.
