CASE NO.: 25STCV20989

[TENTATIVE] ORDER DENYING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION
FOR STAY

Dept. 506

8:30 a.m.

September 24, 2026

On August 24, 2026, Plaintiff
Eric Green filed a motion to stay this action against Defendants County of Los Angeles (erroneously sued as Los Angeles County Sheriff), California Dept. of Insurance, Andrew Gulcher, Erin Hall, and Myra Svoboda.

Plaintiff

asks to stay this action pending the final resolution of the "related Petition for Writ of Administrative Mandamus" currently pending in Case No. 26STCP03091. According to Plaintiff, "[t]he resolution of that administrative writ will determine whether the underlying agency action was valid or abused it's [sic] discretion." Plaintiff contends that "[p]roceeding without a stay would inflict severe hardship on Petitioner by forcing the expenditure of time and significant financial resources litigating matters that may be fundamentally structured pause designed to bring clarity to the dispute."

The

Court already determined that this case and Case No. 26STCP03091 are not related within the meaning of California Rules of Court, rule 3.300(a). Plaintiff provides no relevant legal authority or argument. “[P]arties are required to include argument and citation to authority in their briefs, and the absence of these necessary elements allows this court to treat [an] issue as waived.” (Interinsurance Exchange v. Collins (1994) 30 Cal.App.4th 1445, 1448.)

Accordingly,
the motion for stay is DENIED.

Moving
party to give notice.

Parties
who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at SMCDEPT506@lacourt.ca.gov indicating intention to submit. If all parties in the case submit on the tentative ruling, no appearances before the Court are required unless a companion hearing (for example, a Case Management Conference) is also on calendar.

Dated this 24th day of September 2026

Hon. Thomas D. Long

Judge of the Superior Court
