MOVING PARTY: Defendant

County of Los Angeles

RESPONDING

PARTY: No opposition

I. BACKGROUND

On May 27 and June 1, 2026,

Defendant, County of Los Angeles, filed four motions to compel Plaintiff, Joelle Dumont, to provide responses to Defendant's First Set of Form Interrogatories—Employment Law, Special Interrogatories, and Request for Production of Documents, and to deem the truth of the matters admitted in Defendant's Requests for Admissions, Set One. Defendant does not seek monetary sanctions.

The motions are unopposed.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

If a party to whom interrogatories and inspection demands were directed fails to serve a timely response, the propounding party may move for an order to compel responses without objections. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290(b), 2031.300(b).) If a party to whom requests for admission are directed fails to serve a timely response, the propounding party may move for an order that the truth of the matters specified in the requests be deemed admitted. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2033.280(b).) Failure to timely serve responses waives objections to the requests. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290(a), 2031.300(a), 2033.280(a).) A party moving to compel discovery responses under these statutory provisions is not required to meet and confer prior to filing the motion. (See Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.290(b), 2031.300(b); see also Sinaiko Healthcare Consulting, Inc. v. Pacific Healthcare Consultants (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 390, 411 [citing Leach v. Superior Court (1980) 111 Cal.App.3d 902, 906 for the proposition that “meet and confer” requirement “did not apply when propounding party sought order compelling responses to interrogatories and sanctions for responding party's failure to respond ‘within the statutorily permitted time’”].) ¶¶¶¶

III. DISCUSSION

Defendant moves the court for an order compelling Plaintiff to provide responses to Defendant's first set of written discovery.   It is undisputed that Defendant properly served Plaintiff with these discovery requests on December 19, 2025.  Plaintiff requested two extensions to respond, which Defendant granted. However, at the time of the filing of these motions, Plaintiff had not yet served responses. (Pham Decls.,     8-14.)

Accordingly, for these reasons, Defendant is entitled to an order compelling Plaintiff to provide verified, objection-free responses to the interrogatories and production requests, and to deem admitted the requests for admission against Plaintiff.

IV. CONCLUSION

The motions to compel are GRANTED. Plaintiff Joelle Dumont is ordered to serve verified responses to Defendant County of Los Angeles's First Set of Form Interrogatories—Employment Law, Special Interrogatories, and Request for Production of Documents, without objection, within 30 days of this order.

The motion to deem admitted is GRANTED. Defendant's Requests for Admission, Set One, are deemed admitted against Plaintiff.

Defendant is ordered to give notice, unless waived.
