

TENTATIVE RULINGS

FOR: July 21, 2026

If you do not see a tentative ruling for a scheduled matter, then attendance at the hearing is required.

Remote appearances via Zoom are optional. Please use Zoom at the links listed below.

If you have cases scheduled in both courtrooms at the same time, first log-in to the Zoom session for the department that has your quickest matter(s), and upon check-in, ask the clerk to email the clerk in the other department to advise that you will be late to the other Zoom session.

Dept. A Zoom

Join by Video

<https://www.zoomgov.com/j/1601453113?pwd=XpBIla8kBiCpGb0ukQyabkmCrgDdWM.1>

Effective immediately, Department A no longer permits remote Zoom appearance by telephone.

Dept. B Zoom

Join by Video

<https://www.zoomgov.com/j/1618700612?pwd=3bjaxoPtjuWe7B7JQWBQ8muwSuMiXC.1>

Effective immediately, Department A no longer permits remote Zoom appearance by telephone.

Court Reporting Services – The Court does not provide official court reporters in proceedings for which such services are not legally mandated. Parties are responsible for either making the appropriate request in advance or arranging for their own private court reporter. Go to <http://napacountybar.org/court-reporting-services/> for information about local private court reporters. Attorneys or parties must confer with each other to avoid having more than one court reporter present for the same hearing.

“Recording Court proceedings (whether by Zoom’s AI Meeting Summary functionality or by any other means) is PROHIBITED without express permission from a judicial officer. (Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 1.150(c) & (d))

PROBATE CALENDAR – Hon. Cynthia P. Smith, Dept. A (Historic Courthouse) at 8:30 a.m.

Conservatorship of Octavio Hernandez Espinoza

22PR000222

REVIEW HEARING

APPEARANCE REQUIRED. Conservator shall appear prepared to discuss the status of filing an accounting. The matter has been continued twice to allow the Conservator to file an Inventory and Appraisal and an accounting. (See 4/28/26 and 5/27/26 Minute Orders.) The Court notes an Inventory and Appraisal was filed on July 20, 2026.

.....
Matter of The Patrick Family 1992 Revocable Trust (G)

26-21326

PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF TWENTY-THIRD ACCOUNT AND REPORT OF TRUSTEE AND FOR TRUSTEE FEES

TENTATIVE RULING: The petition is GRANTED, including fees as prayed.

.....

In The Matter of Irrevocable Trust Agreement dated December 28, 1976 fbo Meredith Mateo and Irrevocable Trust Agreement dated December 29, 1976
Fbo Meredith Mateo

26PR000122

PETITION FOR INSTRUCTIONS TO COMBINE SIMILAR TRUSTS

TENTATIVE RULING: Good cause appearing, and no opposition being on file, the Petition is GRANTED.

CIVIL LAW & MOTION CALENDAR – Hon. Cynthia P. Smith, Dept. A (Historic Courthouse) at 8:30 a.m.

Monica Regalado et al v. American Honda Motor Co., Inc.

22CV001602

[1] DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF PLAINTIFF’ S VEHICLE FOR INSPECTION

TENTATIVE RULING: The motion is GRANTED.

The moving party failed to include in the notice of this motion proper notice of the Court’s tentative ruling system as required by Local Rule 2.9. Moving party is directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the missing notice to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

Defendant American Honda Motor Co., Inc. (AHM) moves, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2031.310 and 2023.010, for an order compelling Plaintiff to produce the subject vehicle for inspection.

There appears to be no dispute regarding the following. AHM noticed an inspection of the subject vehicle for a unilaterally chosen date and location. Plaintiffs objected to the date of the inspection, and asserted various other objections regarding the scope and representations of non-destructive testing. Plaintiff offered to meet and confer to select a mutually satisfactory date for the inspection.

AHM contends that Plaintiffs have not met and conferred. (See, e.g., Declaration of Adam Knighton at ¶ 7; see also Support Memo at 3:18-21.) Of note, however, AHM presents no evidence that AHM has made efforts at meeting and conferring.

In this context, Plaintiff presents evidence that, on the date that it filed its Opposition, “an email was sent to opposing counsel offering July 29, 2026, July 30, 2026, and July 31, 2026, for the completion of the Vehicle Inspection.”¹ As such, Plaintiff is not, as AHM contends, refusing to produce the subject vehicle. (See, e.g., 4:24.)

The Court notes the apparent lack of genuine effort among counsel to meet and confer to resolve this discovery dispute prior to resorting to motion practice. “‘It is a central precept to the Civil Discovery Act of 1986 (§ 2016 et seq.) . . . that civil discovery be essentially self-executing. [Citation.]’ [Citation.] A self-executing discovery system is ‘one that operates without judicial involvement.’ [Citation.] Conduct frustrates the goal of a self-executing discovery system when it requires the trial court to become involved in discovery because a dispute leads a party to move for an order compelling a response. [Citation.]” (Clement v. Alegre (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 1277, 1291-1292.) The Court expects that, as part of any future discovery motion, counsel will produce evidence reflecting a genuine and fulsome effort at resolving the dispute through meet and confer.

As there appears to be no dispute, the Motion is GRANTED. Plaintiff is ordered to produce the subject vehicle for inspection no later than July 31, 2026.

[2] DEFENDANT AMERICAN HONDA MOTOR CO., INC. MOTION TO COMPEL THE DEPOSITION AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENT PRODUCTION OF PLAINTIFF MARIA REGALADO

TENTATIVE RULING: The motion is DENIED.

The moving party failed to include in the notice of this motion proper notice of the Court’s tentative ruling system as required by Local Rule 2.9. Moving party is directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the missing notice to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

Defendant American Honda Motor Co., Inc. (AHM) moves, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2025.450, for an order to Compel the Deposition of Plaintiff Maria Regalado.

¹ Plaintiff also notes, through its Opposition that “[t]o date, counsel for Defendant has not responded.” This is unsurprising given that Plaintiff’s Opposition was filed on the same day that the email meet and confer was communicated to AHM.

AHM presents evidence that, on December 3, 2025, it noticed Maria Regalado's deposition for March 3, 2026. (See Declaration of Adam Knighton at ¶ 5.) AHM also presents evidence that Ms. Regalado did not object to the Notice. (See id. at ¶ 6.) Plaintiffs do not suggest that any objection was served and concede that Maria Regalado simply did not appear at the noticed deposition. (See Opposition at 2:3-7.)

Plaintiffs contend that the Motion should be denied because AHM failed to adequately meet and confer.

"If, after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action . . . without having served a valid objection under Section 2025.410, fails to appear for examination . . . or to produce for inspection any document . . . the party giving the notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document, electronically stored information, or tangible thing described in the deposition notice." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.450, subd. (a).) However, any such motion "shall . . . (1) . . . set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the production for inspection of any document . . . [and] . . . (2) . . . by a declaration stating that the petitioner has contacted the deponent to inquire about the nonappearance." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.450, subd. (b).)

The instant Motion complies with neither of the two requirements of the statute.

Plaintiff's counsel represents that "On or about July 8, 2026, counsel for Plaintiff emailed counsel for Defendant offering July 17, 2026, and July 24, 2026, for Plaintiff Monica Regalado's deposition, as Plaintiff was available on those dates. [Citation.] At the time of filing this Opposition, Defendant has not responded to Plaintiff's email. [Citation.]" (Declaration of Lara Abdo at ¶ 8.) July 8, 2026, however, was the date that the Opposition was filed. As such, there was no time for AHM to respond prior to Plaintiff's Opposition being filed. In this context, Plaintiff's representation that "Defendant has not responded," is misleading.

The Court notes the apparent lack of genuine effort among counsel to meet and confer to resolve this discovery dispute prior to resorting to motion practice. "'It is a central precept to the Civil Discovery Act of 1986 (§ 2016 et seq.) . . . that civil discovery be essentially self-executing. [Citation.]' [Citation.] A self-executing discovery system is 'one that operates without judicial involvement.' [Citation.] Conduct frustrates the goal of a self-executing discovery system when it requires the trial court to become involved in discovery because a dispute leads a party to move for an order compelling a response. [Citation.]" (Clement v. Alegre (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 1277, 1291-1292.) The Court expects that, as part of any future discovery motion, counsel will produce evidence reflecting a genuine and fulsome effort at resolving the dispute through meet and confer.

Because AHM failed to satisfy the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 425.450, subdivision (b), the Motion is DENIED. However, the Court expects Plaintiff to follow through on the offer to appear for deposition and to produce documents. As such, this ruling is made without prejudice to AHM renewing its efforts to compel such deposition and production if issues arise after genuine and fulsome efforts at meeting and conferring.

[3] DEFENDANT AMERICAN HONDA MOTOR CO., INC. MOTION TO COMPEL THE DEPOSITION AND ACCOMPANYING DOCUMENT PRODUCTION OF PLAINTIFF MONICA REGALADO

TENTATIVE RULING: The motion is DENIED.

The moving party failed to include in the notice of this motion proper notice of the Court's tentative ruling system as required by Local Rule 2.9. Moving party is directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the missing notice to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

Defendant American Honda Motor Co., Inc. (AHM) moves, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2025.450, for an order to Compel the Deposition of Plaintiff Monica Regalado.

AHM presents evidence that, on December 3, 2025, it noticed Monica Regalado's deposition for March 3, 2026. (See Declaration of Adam Knighton at ¶ 5.) AHM also presents evidence that Ms. Regalado did not object to the Notice. (See id. at ¶ 6.) Plaintiffs do not suggest that any objection was served and concede that Monica Regalado simply did not appear at the noticed deposition. (See Opposition at 2:3-7.)

Plaintiffs contend that the Motion should be denied because AHM failed to adequately meet and confer.

"If, after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action . . . without having served a valid objection under Section 2025.410, fails to appear for examination . . . or to produce for inspection any document . . . the party giving the notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document, electronically stored information, or tangible thing described in the deposition notice." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.450, subd. (a).) However, any such motion "shall . . . (1) . . . set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the production for inspection of any document . . . [and] . . . (2) . . . by a declaration stating that the petitioner has contacted the deponent to inquire about the nonappearance." (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.450, subd. (b).)

The instant Motion complies with neither of the two requirements of the statute.

Plaintiff's counsel represents that "On or about July 8, 2026, counsel for Plaintiff emailed counsel for Defendant offering July 17, 2026, and July 24, 2026, for Plaintiff Monica Regalado's deposition, as Plaintiff was available on those dates. [Citation.] At the time of filing this Opposition, Defendant has not responded to Plaintiff's email. [Citation.]" (Declaration of Lara Abdo at ¶ 8.) July 8, 2026, however, was the date that the Opposition was filed. As such, there was no time for AHM to respond prior to Plaintiff's Opposition being filed. In this context, Plaintiff's representation that "Defendant has not responded," is misleading.

The Court notes the apparent lack of genuine effort among counsel to meet and confer to resolve this discovery dispute prior to resorting to motion practice. "'It is a central precept to the Civil Discovery Act of 1986 (§ 2016 et seq.) . . . that civil discovery be essentially self-executing. [Citation.]' [Citation.] A self-executing discovery system is 'one that operates without judicial involvement.' [Citation.] Conduct frustrates the goal of a self-executing discovery system when it requires the trial court to become involved in discovery because a dispute leads a party to move for an order compelling a response. [Citation.]" (Clement v. Alegre (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 1277, 1291-1292.) The Court expects that, as part of any future discovery motion, counsel will produce evidence reflecting a genuine and fulsome effort at resolving the dispute through meet and confer.

Because AHM failed to satisfy the requirements of Code of Civil Procedure section 425.450, subdivision (b), the Motion is DENIED. However, the Court expects Plaintiff to follow through on the offer to appear for deposition and to produce documents. As such, this ruling is made without prejudice to AHM renewing its efforts to compel such deposition and production if issues arise after genuine and fulsome efforts at meeting and conferring.

at 9:30 a.m.

Ryan Robles v. Barry Callebaut USA, LLC

25CV000606

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS AND REPRESENTATIVE ACTION SETTLEMENT

TENTATIVE RULING: The matter is CONTINUED to August 25, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. A to allow the moving party to provide sufficient notice of the motion. The Proof of Service on file indicates service by mail on June 29, 2026, which is only 15 court days prior to the hearing and therefore insufficient. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1005, subd. (b).) Because Defendant has not waived the defect in service, either expressly, or by filing substantive oppositions or non-oppositions to the motion, the Court is without jurisdiction to hear it. (Diaz v. Prof. Community Management, Inc. (2017) 16 Cal.App.5th 1190, 1204-05 ["The court lacks jurisdiction to rule on a motion that has not been properly noticed for hearing on the date in question."].)

PROBATE CALENDAR – Hon. Joseph J. Solga, Dept. B (Historic Courthouse) at 8:30 a.m.

Estate of Marilyn Louise Quint

23PR000119

STATUS HEARING RE: FINAL DISTRIBUTION

APPEARANCE REQUIRED. There is no new Status Report on file. Petitioner is therefore directed to appear and update the Court on the status of the case.

.....
Estate of James E Lough

26PR000055

PETITION FOR INSTRUCTION TO REVOKE TRUST BY ITS OWN TERMS

TENTATIVE RULING: The matter is CONTINUED to August 27, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. B to allow Petitioner to provide sufficient notice of the Petition. (Prob. Code, § 17203 [30 days].)

CIVIL LAW & MOTION CALENDAR – Hon. Joseph J. Solga, Dept. B (Historic Courthouse) at 8:30 a.m.

Red Target, LLC dba SCJ Commercial Financial Services v. Kiersten Firquain

23CV000301

DEFENDANT KIERSTEN FIRQUAIN’S MOTION TO STRIKE THE ENTIRETY OF PLAINTIFF’S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

APPEARANCE REQUIRED: The motion to strike the First Amended Complaint is DENIED. The Court is inclined to not exercise its discretion to dismiss the action for Plaintiff’s failure to prosecute. However, as Plaintiff failed to oppose the Motion, the Court orders the parties to appear in order that it may hear from Plaintiff regarding its commitment to pursuing its claims.

Defendant Kiersten Firquain moves, pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 435, subdivision (b)(1) and 436, subdivision (b), for an Order striking, in its entirety, Plaintiff’s First Amended Complaint filed on or about April 4, 2026 (FAC).² Firquain also moves for an order dismissing the action pursuant to Section 583.420, subdivision (a)(2)(A).

Firquain asks the Court to strike the FAC on grounds that the Court issued an order on October 18, 2023, compelling Plaintiff to file the pleading “within 30 days” of the order. (See Support Memo at 3:6-9.) The subject Order, entered on stipulation of the parties, states “Plaintiff shall file its First Amended Complaint within thirty (30) days after the date of the Court’s Order in connection with this Stipulation . . .” (October 18, 2023, Order at 2:10-11.) The Order does not, however, provide any consequence for non-compliance. It appears that the parties did not contemplate non-compliance when entering into the stipulation.

The Court notes that “[a] party may amend its pleading once without leave of the court at any time before the answer, demurrer, or motion to strike is filed . . .” (Code Civ. Proc., § 472, subd. (a).) As of the filing of the FAC, no answer, demurrer, or motion to strike the original Complaint had been filed. Nothing in the parties Stipulation suggests a waiver, by Plaintiff, of its rights pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 472.

² All subsequent statutory references herein are to the Code of Civil Procedure unless otherwise noted.

In this context, the Court is unable to conclude that the FAC was “not drawn or filed in conformity with the laws of this state, a court rule, or an order of the court” and, therefore, Firquain’s request for an order striking the FAC is DENIED.

Firquain contends that “Code of Civil Procedure § 583.420 [subdivision] (a)(2)(A) . . . gives the Court the discretionary authority to dismiss this action.” (Support memo at 4:24-25.)

Section 583.410 provides that “[t]he court may in its discretion dismiss an action for delay in prosecution pursuant to this article on its own motion or on motion of the defendant if to do so appears to the court appropriate under the circumstances of the case.” Section 583.420 prohibits the Court from exercising this discretion except under specifically enumerated conditions. Section 583.420, subdivision (a)(2)(A), provides that one of the conditions under which the Court may exercise its discretion (and dismiss an action for delay in prosecution) is where “[t]he action is not brought to trial within . . . [t]hree years after the action is commenced against the defendant . . .”

The Court shares Firquain’s concerns regarding the age of the instant litigation and the significant and unexplained delays in the period between the Court’s October 18, 2023, Order providing for the filing of an amended complaint, and Plaintiff’s filing of the FAC on April 4, 2026. The Court also takes Plaintiff’s failure to file any opposition to the instant motion as a further reflection on Plaintiff’s interest in pursuing its claims.

Nevertheless, the Court recognizes the strong policy in California that parties should be allowed their day in Court. Plaintiff has demonstrated an interest in pursuing its claims as recently as April 4, 2026. The Court further notes that, while Plaintiff has not been diligent in prosecuting the instant action, Firquain has not been diligent in formally defending it. As noted, the Complaint was filed in March, 2023, and the FAC was filed in April, 2026. However, until the instant motion, Firquain had not filed any answer to, demurrer to, or motion to strike either pleading.

Based on the foregoing, the Court is inclined not to exercise its discretion to dismiss the action for failure to prosecute. However, it would like the parties to appear in order to hear from Plaintiff regarding its commitment to pursuing its claims going forward.

.....
JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. v. Sophay Seng

25CV000013

MOTION TO VACATE DISMISSAL AND ENTER JUDGMENT UNDER TERMS OF STIPULATED SETTLEMENT

TENTATIVE RULING: The motion is GRANTED. The Court will sign the Proposed Order and Proposed Judgment.

The moving party fails to include, in the notice of this motion, the current version of the Tentative Ruling notice required by Local Rule 2.9, effective 1/1/26. The current version allows a party or counsel to request a hearing by calling the Court or emailing the Court, at JudicialReception2@napa.courts.ca.gov and providing specified information set out in Local Rule 2.9. The moving party is therefore directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the current Tentative Ruling notice explicitly required by Local Rule 2.9 to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

Plaintiff JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. moves, pursuant to Civil Code Procedure § 664.6, for an order vacating the dismissal and for entry of judgment under terms of the stipulated settlement.

The Court finds good cause for entering judgment based on the Parties' stipulated settlement, filed March 21, 2025, this Court's Order of March 25, 2025, and the Declaration of Alexander Balzer Carr filed in support of the instant motion. (See Hines v. Lukes (2008) 167 Cal.App.4th 1174, 1183 [entering appealable judgment on trial court order, entered after dismissal, that finally determined the rights of the parties in the action].) No opposition appears in the Court's file.

.....
Thomas Pollock et al v. Angel Melendez Pimentel et al

25CV000964

DEFENDANT FEDERAL INSURANCE COMPANY'S MOTION TO COMPEL
PLAINTIFF'S FURTHER RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES

TENTATIVE RULING: The motion is GRANTED. Plaintiffs shall serve further, verified responses to the Subject Discovery (defined below) within 30 days of the Notice of Entry of Order. Federal is directed to provide Notice of Entry of Order.

The moving party fails to include, in the notice of this motion, the current version of the Tentative Ruling notice required by Local Rule 2.9, effective 1/1/26. The current version allows a party or counsel to request a hearing by calling the Court or emailing the Court, at JudicialReception2@napa.courts.ca.gov and providing specified information set out in Local Rule 2.9. The moving party is therefore directed to immediately provide, by telephone call AND email, the current Tentative Ruling notice explicitly required by Local Rule 2.9 to opposing party/ies forthwith. The requirements for requesting oral argument under Local Rule 2.9 remain in effect. However, the Court may grant belated requests for oral argument or continuance of hearing, made by any party who represents it did not timely receive the required notice, regardless of whether or not moving party is present at the hearing.

Defendant Federal Insurance Company (“Federal”) moves, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2030.300,³ to compel Plaintiffs’ further responses to Federal’s Special Interrogatories Nos. 4 and 8 and Form Interrogatories Nos. 7.1 and 9.1 (collectively, “Subject Discovery”). The Motion is brought on the grounds that Plaintiffs supplemental responses, served January 26 and 27, 2026, contain meritless objections and are incomplete because the responses fail to provide (1) the dollar amount they seek to recover under their insurance policy or in this lawsuit, (2) the amount Federal has allegedly failed to pay in excess of the approximately $2.5 million Federal has paid, (3) an itemized list of their claimed property damage, and (4) the damages they seek in connection with their extra-contractual claims such as fraud, negligence, and unfair competition. (Mem., 1:8-13.)

“Each answer in a response to interrogatories shall be as complete and straightforward as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. If an interrogatory cannot be answered completely, it shall be answered to the extent possible.” (§ 2030.220, subds. (a)-(b).) On receipt of a response to interrogatories, the propounding party may move for an order compelling a further response if the propounding party deems an answer to a particular interrogatory is evasive or incomplete, or an objection to an interrogatory is without merit or too general. (§ 2030.300, subd. (a)(1), (3).)

If a timely motion to compel is filed, the propounding party has the burden of filing a motion to compel if it finds the answers it receives unsatisfactory, but “the burden of justifying any objection and failure to respond remains at all times with the party resisting an interrogatory.” (Coy v. Superior Court (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210, 220-21.) To show an interrogatory seeks relevant, discoverable information “is not the burden of [the party propounding interrogatories]. As a litigant, it is entitled to demand answers to its interrogatories, as a matter of right, and without a prior showing, unless the party on whom those interrogatories are served objects and shows cause why the questions are not within the purview of the code section.” (West Pico Furniture Co. v. Superior Court (1961) 56 Cal.2d 407, 422.)

In Opposition, Plaintiffs do not attempt to justify their objections. Rather, Plaintiffs argue that their responses provided sufficient facts based on information then-available from Federal. Specifically, Plaintiffs’ primary argument is that they were entitled to wait for Federal to complete its required investigation of the loss because Plaintiffs’ extent of damages sought in this lawsuit is dependent upon what Federal will agree to pay. Plaintiffs argue that Federal, as an insurer, has a duty under California Insurance Law to investigate and determine damages on an insurance claim. Thus, Plaintiffs contend, Federal’s use of the discovery process in this action to shift its burden to Plaintiffs is improper and premature. Plaintiffs assert that Federal only informed Plaintiffs on May 8, 2026 that its investigation was completed and, with that confirmation, Plaintiffs will endeavor to evaluate Federal’s investigation and its result.

Federal does not dispute that it has a duty, as an insurer, to investigate and determine Plaintiffs’ insurance claim, including damages. Federal contends that it has completed its investigation and provided to Plaintiffs several reports and costs estimates reflecting the results of its investigation. Nevertheless, Federal argues that its investigation is irrelevant to the Motion, which seeks to compel information regarding the amounts Plaintiffs seek to recover beyond the amount that Federal has already paid.

³ All subsequent statutory references are to the Code of Civil Procedure unless otherwise specified.

The Court finds the Subject Discovery is directly relevant to Plaintiffs' claim for damages. The Court understands that Plaintiffs were previously unable to respond with specific information as to the amount and list of damages sought, as that answer depends upon Federal's determination of what it will pay following its investigation. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs now acknowledge that Federal has informed them that its investigation is complete as of May 8. Thus, Plaintiffs' purported justification for not being able to fully respond to the Subject Discovery appears moot. The Court notes that Plaintiffs' final meet and confer communication, on May 18, conveyed to Federal the same point—now that Federal's investigation is complete, Plaintiffs will endeavor to evaluate the investigation and its results. (See Declaration of Brittany Fowler, Ex. 4, pp. 3-4, 6, 8.) While Plaintiffs do not expressly state they will supplement the responses to the Subject Discovery following their evaluation, that certainly was the takeaway the Court gathered.

Based on the foregoing, Federal's motion is GRANTED.

.....

In The Matter of Nicolas F De Pierola Alvarado

26CV000983

PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME

TENTATIVE RULING: An Order to Show Cause for Change of Name (OSC) was entered in this matter on May 08, 2026. Petitioner is required to publish the OSC in the manner set forth in Code of Civil Procedure, section 1277. However, there is no proof of publication (POP) in the Court's file. If one is filed before the hearing, the petition will be GRANTED without need for appearance.

If no proof of publication is filed, the matter will be CONTINUED to September 15, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Dept. B. Petitioner is required to file a new Order to Show Cause with the continued hearing date and, once signed by the Court, publish the order to show cause pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure, section 1277. Failure to comply with the foregoing will result in the Court denying the Petition at the continued hearing date.

.....

In The Matter of Margareth Mariel Areas

26CV001091

PETITION FOR CHANGE OF NAME

TENTATIVE RULING: Notice has been properly published and no written objections have been filed. The petition is GRANTED without need for appearance.