It is understood the Petitioner seeks the property, still to be fully defined, to be returned to the original Trust. 2. An Objection has been filed. The Objection was served via email, yet there is nothing in the file that consents to electronic service. 3. The additional materials have been reviewed. The Court will address the temporary trustee appointment at the hearing. The temporary trustee appointment is being considered under Probate Code sections 15642 (e), 17206, and Schwartz vs. Labow (2008) 78 Cal.Rpt.3d. 838, 846-847. It is a temporary order, based on the information provided in the pleadings filed. The ultimate determination of removal is a cause of action pending for evidentiary hearing and the full allegations will be addressed under Probate Code section 15642 at trial on that Petition. |

The following is noted: 1. Proof of service of Notice of Hearing or a declaration of diligent search is needed on Kendra Drysdale. Additional notice issues may need to be addressed once the Court obtains answers to the following issues. 2. An Objection has been filed. The parties should be prepared to discuss motion plans and trial. 3. A copy of the "Schedule of Beneficiaries" is needed, as referenced in Article 1 of the Trust. It is not clear from the Petition or Objection how each party determined the alleged beneficiary of the RPC Realty Trust.                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
