Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED (Zoom allowed)

Conservators are ordered to appear and explain why they have not filed the Confidential Conservatorship Care Plan Parts 1 and 2 (form GC-355 and GC-356). Upon filing of said documents, the court would be prepared to transfer this matter to Los Angeles County where the conservatee and conservator reside. The Private Defender is discharged.

26-PRO-00887	Guardianship of Gerson Abraham Abaj Jerez
Line 17, 18	Petitioner: Abaj Jerez, Gerson Abraham (DECK, CLARE) Ward: Abaj Jerez, Gerson Abraham Proposed Guardian: Xico Abaj, Henry Emilio	Petition for Special Immigrant Juvenile Findings Appointment of Guardian for Person of the Minor

Notes:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL [Zoom not allowed]

The petitions are DENIED. The minor's declaration in support of the SIJF does not establish that his mother has abandoned him. He left Guatemala with his father, leaving his mother behind. His father, with whom he lives, has always been the financial support for the family, even when they lived in Guatemala. The minor has not declared that his mother has failed to communicate with him, and her inability to provide additional financial support because of her apparent indigency is not sufficient in the Court's view to determine that she has abandoned the Minor. She is left to provide care for five other children back in Guatemala. Because the petitioner has not established a basis for any SIJF, the petition for guardianship cannot be granted. The fact that the father is in removal proceedings, without more specifics as to the status and timeline of those proceedings, next court hearing, etc., is not a basis to find that a guardianship is either necessary or convenient. The father provides for and lives with the minor; he is not detained elsewhere while the removal proceedings are pending.
