

FL-21-000716 EGGLESTON VS EGGLESTON

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 25

Hearing date: 2026-07-21

Motion: Petitioner's Request for Order re Expert Fees, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. The Court has read and considered the moving and opposing papers, including Petitioner's "reply" to Respondent's Responsive Declaration. While the request to reschedule the hearing by Respondent is untimely, this matter was set on shortened time and for good cause, but the Court invites counsel to be heard on this counter-request and will exercise discretion as to whether to proceed pursuant to the OST or to reschedule. That said, this is a needs-based request for professional fees and costs, a matter that is not ordinarily eligible for tentative ruling due to the factual findings equivalent to pendente lite spousal support requests that must be made and is therefore posted as such, if at all. In this regard, the Court notes that Petitioner's last I&E on file is from April of this year, and is therefore no longer "current" pursuant to the Local Rules and Family Law Rules of Court. Likewise, the last I&E on file from Respondent dates back to January of last year. The declarations from the parties and their counsel of record make representations regarding the parties' respective financial circumstances, but these are not "evidence" and are not sufficient for the appropriate findings—either way—that the Court is being asked to make. Accordingly, both parties shall fully complete and sign an I&E prior to the hearing, and shall share a copy with the Court and the opposing party and that party's counsel of record, to be served and filed thereafter. Counsel are further directed to meet and confer in good faith in an effort to resolve some or all of the issues in dispute, and to any exchange any material documents either intends to rely upon for proof of a material fact at the hearing.
