

my response (except perhaps to your objections to the unjust enrichment cause of action) is not going to concede that the other causes of action are deficient.”].)

Sending a meet-and-confer letter to opposing counsel and asking them to let you know whether or not they will amend the complaint does not meet the letter or spirit of the meet and confer requirement of Code of Civil Procedure section 439, subdivision (a). Additionally, if there is a possibility of reducing the number of issues that comes up from written communications alone, it is imperative that the parties pursue that possibility by conducting a proper in person, telephone, or video-conference meet and confer. The hearing is therefore continued for the parties to meet and confer pursuant to the statute.
