Analysis

California Rules of Court (CRC) Rule 9.40 allows this Court to grant a written application for leave to appear as Counsel Pro Hac Vice to an applicant who is not a member of the State Bar of California, but who is admitted into and is in good standing with the highest court of any other state.

Upon review, the Court finds that the verified application of Joseph P. Trabucco III declares facts under penalty of perjury to support the application under CRC Rule 9.40. Counsel Trabucco is an attorney licensed to practice in Pennsylvania and New York, and before the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and the Court of Appeals for Third District. He is employed by Trabucco & Menard in Plymouth Meeting, Pennsylvania. He is not a member of the California State Bar, nor is he a resident of the State of California, nor does he have regular employment or substantial business in California. He represented to the Court that he not been suspended, disbarred or resigned as counsel. No court has denied his application to be admitted Pro Hac Vice.

After considering the moving papers, and applying the relevant law, the Court makes the following findings and orders.

Ruling

No timely opposition was filed with the Court. Defendant's motion is granted. Joseph P. Trabucco III is admitted to appear as Counsel Pro Hac Vice for the duration of this case. Defendants Counsel are ordered to prepare and e-file a conforming order to signed by the Court within five days of the date of this hearing. No appearance is required at the hearing on March 5, 2026.
