Petitioner filed a Request for Order (RFO) on November 10, 2025, seeking modification of child custody and parenting plan orders. The parties were referred to Child Custody Recommending Counseling (CCRC) with an appointment on December 10, 2025, and a review hearing on February 5, 2026. Respondent was mail served with address verification in accordance with Family Code section 215.

Parties appeared for the hearing on February 5, 2026. The court did not adopt its tentative ruling but rather rereferred the parties to CCRC and set a further review hearing. The court directed Petitioner to provide Proof of Service showing Respondent was properly served and cautioned that the matter would be dropped from calendar if Petitioner failed to do so.

Petitioner filed a Proof of Service on February 10, 2026, showing proper service on Respondent.

Respondent filed a new Responsive Declaration on March 18, 2026. It was served on Petitioner on the same day. Respondent requests the current orders remain in full force and effect.

Both parties and the minor attended CCRC. The parties were able to reach several agreements. A report with the parties' agreements and further recommendations was filed with the court on April 7, 2026. Copies were mailed to the parties the same day.

The court has read and considered the filings as outlined above. The court finds the agreements and recommendations as set forth in the April 7th CCRC report to be in the best interest of the minor. The court adopts the agreements and recommendations as set forth.

All prior orders not in conflict with this order remain in full force and effect. Petitioner is directed to prepare the Findings and Orders After Hearing (FOAH); however, this order is effective immediately upon the court's adoption of the tentative ruling and is not conditioned on the preparation of the FOAH.

TENTATIVE RULING #13: THE COURT FINDS THE AGREEMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS AS SET FORTH IN THE APRIL 7TH CCRC REPORT TO BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE MINOR. THE COURT ADOPTS THE AGREEMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS AS SET FORTH. ALL PRIOR ORDERS NOT IN CONFLICT WITH THIS ORDER REMAIN IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT. PETITIONER IS DIRECTED TO PREPARE THE FINDINGS AND ORDERS AFTER HEARING (FOAH); HOWEVER, THIS ORDER IS

Petitioner filed a Request for Order (RFO) seeking child and temporary spousal support orders, as well as a request for attorney's fees. Petitioner concurrently filed an Income and Expense Declaration. Respondent was served electronically on March 25, 2026. Petitioner is seeking guideline child support. Petitioner is seeking $3,326 in temporary spousal support. Petitioner is also seeking $15,000 in Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees.

Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration on April 8, 2026. Respondent concurrently filed an Income and Expense Declaration. Respondent requests the court make support orders based on the parties' actual income; order that Petitioner assume responsibility for the household expenses upon the commencement of the support orders; and deny Petitioner's request for Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees.

After reviewing the filings as outlined above, the court is utilizing Respondent's estimated income for Petitioner and a 0% timeshare for Respondent in calculating support. Utilizing these figures the court finds guideline child support to be $3,250 (see attached Xspouse). The court is ordering Respondent to pay Petitioner $3,250 per month as and for guideline child support, effective May 1, 2026. Future payments are due on the first of each month until further order of the court or termination by operation of law.

The court finds guideline temporary spousal support to be $1,136 per the Alameda formula (see attached Xspouse). The court orders Respondent to pay Petitioner $1,136 per month as and for temporary guideline spousal support, effective May 1, 2026. Payments are due on the first of each month until further order of the court or termination by operation of law.

The court finds Respondent routinely earns bonus income. The court is ordering Petitioner to prepare a bonus income table based on the figures the court has used for the guideline calculations. Respondent is ordered to true up any bonus income on a quarterly basis. Respondent is ordered to provide Petitioner with paystubs on a quarterly basis.

The court is ordering Petitioner to be responsible for the household expenses effective May 1, 2026. The parties are ordered to share in the costs of the minors' uncovered medical expenses as set forth in the attach FL-192. Further, parties are to share the costs of the minors' extracurricular activities equally.
