[Tentative] Order RE:

Motion

to Compel Deposition and Production of Documents

MOVING PARTY: Plaintiff Antreas Hindoyan, M.D.

RESPONDING

PARTY: Defendant University of Southern California.

Motion to Compel

Deposition and Production of Documents

The court considered the moving,
opposition, and reply papers filed in connection with this motion.

DISCUSSION

Plaintiff Antreas

Hindoyan ("Plaintiff") moves the court for an order compelling Defendant University of Southern California ("Defendant") to produce eight witnesses for deposition and to produce documents.

The court denies

Plaintiff's motion for failure to submit a proper meet and confer declaration as required by Code of Civil Procedure section 2016.040. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.450, subd. (b)(2).)

A reasonable and good faith attempt at informal resolution "requires that counsel attempt to talk the matter over, compare their views, consult, and deliberate." (In re Marriage of Moore (2024) 102 Cal.App.5th 1275, 1293 [internal quotation marks and citation omitted].) "[T]he parties must present to each other the merits of their respective positions with the same candor, specificity and support during informal negotiations as during the briefing of discovery motions. Only after all the cards have been laid on the table, and a party has meaningfully assessed the relative strengths and weakness of its position in light of all available information, can there be a sincere effort to resolve the matter.” (Id. at pp. 1293-1294 [internal quotation marks and citation omitted].)

The declaration submitted in support of Plaintiff’s motion reveals that Plaintiff’s counsel did not engage in a reasonable and good-faith attempt at informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. In response to Defendant’s objection to the eight deposition notices at issue here, Plaintiff’s counsel demanded by email that Defendant provide new dates for the depositions to take place. (Zilifyan Decl. Ex. 3 [PDF page 105].) Defendant’s counsel invited Plaintiff’s counsel to schedule a telephone conversation to discuss the matter informally. (Zilifyan Decl. Ex. 3 [PDF pages 102-104].) Nothing in the record indicates that this telephone conversation occurred, and the next email from Plaintiff’s counsel was a unilateral demand for alternative dates and threatening to file a motion. (Zilifyan Decl. Ex. 3 [PDF page 101].) Based on the court’s review of the Zilifyan declaration filed by Plaintiff, the court finds that Plaintiff has not shown that they satisfied the meet and confer requirement before filing this motion.

ORDER

The court DENIES plaintiff Antreas Hindoyan’s motion to compel deposition and production of documents.

The court orders defendant University of Southern California to give notice of this ruling.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
