Notice has been provided to the underlying beneficiaries of the estate beneficiary, the Wood Family Trust. The moving part is the Trustee of said Trust. In this matter, the Amended Petition and order of the Court did not request statutory fees for the personal representative, but instead clearly stated no fees were due to the personal representative. The attorney now indicates this was an error and that statutory fees for the personal representative were meant to be requested in full, with what appears to be a statutory fee to the attorney at an agreed-upon reduced fee of $8,738.89. Absent Objection, it is recommended that the Court generally grant the Motion, but the remaining issue never determined on August 12, 2025 was the amount of statutory fee due. The Petitioner's filings leading up to the August 12, 2025 approval of the Petition for Final Distribution were inconsistent and confusing, as discussed at length in the ruling adopted that day. Despite this, the Petition was granted based, in part, on what the Court understood at the |
