Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

The Motion is DENIED. The request for discretionary relief under 473(b) is DENIED, as a reasonably prudent person under the same or similar circumstances would not have made the same error. Counsel seems to be arguing that he misread the petition, but the discretionary prong for relief is rooted in excusable neglect or error. It is difficult to accept as meritorious that counsel did not know that the petition sought payment of fees from the corpus of the trust, prior to any distributions, as that was spelled out in precise detail [and more than once]. Mandatory relief is also DENIED under 473(b), as no default was entered. Further, the Order is not void, as Moving Party knew or should have known that the Petitions may be granted as a result of the hearing and the Court did not approve or rely on any settlement agreement for its ruling.
