

FL-25-002073 LARA VS LARA

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 25

Hearing date: 2026-06-29

Motion: Petitioner's Request for Order re Enforcement of Judgment, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. Proof of personal service of Respondent is on file and demonstrates presumptively valid and timely individual notice and service in compliance with the Court's Order Shortening Time and Family Code section 215. Respondent has not filed a Responsive Declaration or other opposition. Accordingly, on the basis of Petitioner's declaration and the Court's reservation of jurisdiction over the real property located at 1100 W. Tuolumne Rd. in Turlock, California, the Court is inclined to grant the following order requests: (1) That the property be listed for sale with the realtor designated by Petitioner; (2) That Respondent is ordered to cooperate and to sign all necessary and appropriate documents necessary to effectuate this order; (3) That should Respondent not do so, then Petitioner is authorized to seek an ex parte order for appointment of the clerk as elisor to sign on Respondent's behalf, provided Petitioner complies with the local rules regarding elisor appointments; (4) That Petitioner be given temporary exclusive possession and control of the subject property pending sale; (5) That the funds upon sale and close of escrow be deposited to an FDIC insured, interest-bearing blocked account of Petitioner's selection pending further order of the Court and determination of equalization, if any, pursuant to the final judgment entered in this matter on April 30, 2026. All other requests are denied without prejudice.

Source URL: <https://www.stanislaus.courts.ca.gov/online-services/tentative-rulings/family-law-tentative-rulings>

Source SHA-256: 1128b7d2a8ac5f749895b886d0ae5a4cd31129b3484e285b7618c413af548dad

FL-25-002073 – LARA VS LARA

Petitioner's Request for Order re Enforcement of Judgment, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. Proof of personal service of Respondent is on file and demonstrates presumptively valid and timely individual notice and service in compliance with the Court's Order Shortening Time and Family Code section 215. Respondent has not filed a Responsive Declaration or other opposition.

Accordingly, on the basis of Petitioner's declaration and the Court's reservation of jurisdiction over the real property located at 1100 W. Tuolumne Rd. in Turlock, California, the Court is inclined to grant the following order requests:

- (1) That the property be listed for sale with the realtor designated by Petitioner;
- (2) That Respondent is ordered to cooperate and to sign all necessary and appropriate documents necessary to effectuate this order;
- (3) That should Respondent not do so, then Petitioner is authorized to seek an ex parte order for appointment of the clerk as elisor to sign on Respondent's behalf, provided Petitioner complies with the local rules regarding elisor appointments;
- (4) That Petitioner be given temporary exclusive possession and control of the subject property pending sale;
- (5) That the funds upon sale and close of escrow be deposited to an FDIC insured, interest-bearing blocked account of Petitioner's selection pending further order of the Court and determination of equalization, if any, pursuant to the final judgment entered in this matter on April 30, 2026.

All other requests are denied without prejudice.