County of Los Angeles

DEPARTMENT 17

TENTATIVE RULING

STEPHON WATFORD

vs.

PROMISE ASSISTED LIVING, LLC

Case

No.: 24STCV31938

Hearing Date: July 15, 2026

Plaintiff's motion to compel the second deposition of Defendant Zulficar Gregory Restum is GRANTED. However, the Court declines to award sanctions at this time.

On 12/4/2024,
Plaintiff Stephon Watford (Plaintiff) filed suit against Promise Assisted Living, LLC, alleging: (1) whistleblower retaliation; (2) retaliation and discrimination; and (3) wrongful termination.

On 6/11/2026, Plaintiff moved to compel the second deposition of Defendant Zulficar Gregory Restum.

Discussion

Plaintiff moves to compel Defendant Restum to appear and testify for a second deposition. Plaintiff argues that good cause exists to compel the second deposition because “since his deposition was taken, Defendants have materially changed their positions on factual issues in this case and have produced new documents that were previously improperly withheld and/or fabricated to support Defendants’ defenses in this case.”
(Motion ii: 7-9.)

In particular, Plaintiff points to discovery provided for the first time in response to his motion for terminating sanctions which included fax transmissions and a declaration obtained from Jerrold Griffin. Plaintiff has not had an opportunity to depose Restum about this new evidence, as it was unknown at the time.

In opposition, Defendant contends that further deposition is unnecessary because he does not rely on the Griffin declaration in support of his motion for summary judgment.

However, Defendant’s motion for summary judgment concerns Plaintiff’s cause of action for defamation, which directly concerns allegations relevant to the APS report. As such, Plaintiff’s ability to investigate Defendant’s newly provided evidence related to the APS reporting is highly relevant to his ability to oppose the motion for summary judgment.

Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff’s motion to compel the second deposition of Defendant Zulficar Gregory Restum is granted. However, the Court declines to award sanctions at this time.

It is so ordered.
