ARACELI HERNANDEZ vs

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, Case No. 23NWCV00100

This employment discrimination action was filed on January 11, 2023. Defendant County of Los Angeles applies ex parte to continue trial, currently scheduled for August 27, 2026, for 180 days on the grounds that additional time is necessary to complete critical discovery involving percipient LASD witnesses whose testimony is material to the claims and defenses at issue in this action. The request for a trial continuance is unopposed, but trial has already been continued four times before. The ex parte application is DENIED. Defendant has failed to demonstrate exigency or irreparable harm. The witnesses the parties seek to depose appear to be ones that the parties have known about, or should have known about, for some time. Moreover, Defendant's showing of good cause is conclusory. Defendant fails to specify why the proposed depositions are critical to the case beyond the mere assertion that the witnesses are percipient or otherwise have some personal knowledge of the facts of the case.

The Court reiterates what it stated on January 29, 2026 in connection with Defendant's request to continue trial for a fourth time: "More is required for a showing of good cause. In the absence of a stronger showing, any future request for a trial continuance will be denied." Moving party to give notice.
