Geiwitz v Jaguar

Ex parte

application to special set motion to depose PMQ: Denied.

Discovery

motion cutoff is 15 days before trial.

In order for the motion to be timely, it had to be served and filed by 8/14/2026. Instead, it was served and filed 8/20/2026. Therefore, even on regular notice it was too late.

Also, Dept. T's policy on depositions in Lemon Law cases has been stated many time: Ask for the PMQ depo, if you get no dates, notice the deposition, and if you still get no dates, file a motion to compel and the court will order the deposition in 10 days. Plaintiff had "nearly a year" to make that motion. The "inability" to take the deposition is no one's fault than plaintiff's counsel for not coming in with a timely motion to compel.
