Disclosure

The Court needs to make a disclosure and provisional recusal. After the time of the most recent hearing on this matter, the Judge's daughter became employed as an attorney by Gordon Rees Scully and Mansukhani. That firm represents a party to this case. The recusal of the Judge in this situation is mandatory. CCP section 170.3. The Parties and Counsel may waive the disqualification if they choose. If so, the Judge will continue on in this case. If not, it will be reassigned. Counsel should discuss this issue and let the clerk know how they wish to proceed and, if there is an objection, they should not communicate which parties raise the objection. If the Court is requested to remain on the case, the hearing on Monday will be reset for argument at the next available date.
