NOTICE: CHANGE OF CALENDAR DEPARTMENT AND DATES

Beginning July 6, 2026, the Probate Calendar will be heard Mondays, 8:30 a.m., in Department 2, located at the Historic Courthouse, 101 Maple Street, Auburn.

These calendar notes are provided pursuant to Local Rule 80.1.4 for the probate calendar set for hearing August 31, 2026, 8:30 AM, in Department 2, the Hon. Glenn M. Holley, presiding.

Pursuant to Local Rule 80.1.4, these calendar notes are not a tentative ruling on the merits of any matter before the court. Remote appearances are generally available for this calendar, as provided in the Local Rules. Local Rule 10.24(G), governing remote appearances for most probate, conservatorship, and guardianship cases applies to this calendar.

Updated notes may be posted at any time and will generally be updated prior to the hearing. Staff may respond to limited questions concerning calendar notes; however, court staff may not give legal advice to parties or attorneys. Messages may be left for the Office of Legal Research at (916) 408-6119.

1. S-PR-0010430 Josiah Pickett Spec Needs Trust; In re the

1st SNT account

Appearance is required for continued hearing on 1st SNT account.

2d SNT account

Appearance is required for continued hearing on 2d SNT account.

3d SNT account

Appearance is required for hearing on 3d SNT account.

Clarification is needed: the 3d account shows the trust purchased a vehicle. Such a purchase is ordinarily scheduled as a change in the form of assets. If title was taken in the name of beneficiary, the purchase appears to be an improper distribution; if title was taken in the name of a third party, the purchase appears to be an improper gift of trust assets. If title remains in the trust, the trust continues to hold a valuable corpus, bond remains required, and future accounts will be required.

In light of the low value of estate cash reserves, it is recommended total reasonable attorney fees and costs for all accounts be fixed at $15,000.00.

2. S-PR-0012062 In Re the Estate of Trocha, Robert John

Missing waiver of personal representative fees by Madison Trocha, former joint personal representative of the estate.

Clarification is needed: the estate is a non-cash estate. Petitioner should show how requested attorney fees are to be paid. The court will not ordinarily approve fees where there are no assets to pay fees.

3. S-PR-0012117 In Re the Estate of Lewis, Edward

Appearance is required for continued hearing on petition for final distribution.

Missing corrected I&A referred to in ¶ 8 of the petition.

Clarification is needed: the estate is a non-cash estate. Petitioner should show how requested attorney fees are to be paid. The court will not ordinarily approve fees where there are no assets to pay fees.

The request to approve distribution of the estate must be denied. Petitioners admit distributing the entirety of the estate contrary to decedent's will (which limits distribution to decedent's trust) and to the underlying trust (under which Steven Lewis's trust share is preserved for his children (see Art. 12 §§ 1–2). See also Declaration of Harake, filed June 20, 2023, at 1:26–28. The court should not authorize testate distribution contrary to the controlling testamentary instruments.

It is recommended the petition be deemed one to terminate administration under Prob.C. § 12251 as there are no assets in the estate from which to award fees or which can be distributed to any person. After termination of administration, the parties would be free to address any outstanding concerns (such as fees) as they may privately determine.

Appearance is required for continued hearing on petition to determine trust terms and for other relief.

Current status is needed.

10. S-PR-0013396 In Re the Estate of Giannulias, Demetrios A.

Appearance is required for hearing on 2d amended petition for final distribution.

Court determination is needed as to the sufficiency of service of notice of hearing. Petitioner alleges that devisee Demitra Economou "has been unresponsive" and cannot be located, suggesting petitioner believes she does not have a good mailing address for Demitra. Missing C.R.C. 7.52 declaration of efforts to locate Demitra.

If notice issues are resolved to the court's satisfaction, it is recommended the petition be denied, as follows.

Petitioner inventoried the entirety of a certain real property to the estate. However, petitioner attached a deed to her declaration filed September 3, 2025, showing record title of said property is held by petitioner and decedent as tenants in common. Legal title is presumed to be as stated in the deed unless petitioner can overcome the presumption by clear and convincing evidence. Evid.C. § 662. No such evidence is offered, requiring that only an undivided 1/2 interest to be inventoried to this estate. Petitioner appears to further argue that the property should not be considered an estate asset because she did not intend to convey a property interest to decedent when the October 2004 deed was executed and recorded. No petition to determine title to the property has been filed. See Prob.C. § 850 et seq.

Alternatively, petitioner requests the court authorize distribution of the estate property to petitioner in light of purported disclaimers of interest by Andrea Giannulias and Chrisopher Economou and by disregarding the rights of Demitra Economou under decedent's will. The purported disclaimers by Andrea and Christopher each recite that disclaimant acquired knowledge of his or her interest in the estate on February 25, 2025; however, each disclaimer was not executed until January 2026, automatically taking it out of the presumptions of Prob.C. § 279(a)(1) and (d). The burden of establishing that the disclaimers are timely falls on disclaimants. Prob.C. § 279(f).

Even if there were timely disclaimers, the effect is to cause each disclaimant's share to pass as though disclaimant had predeceased. Under decedent's will, the share of a predeceased devisee passes to the devisee's issue, not to petitioner as prayed.

Finally, petitioner offers no legal grounds to disregard the testate rights of Demitra who, petitioner concedes, has not attempted to disclaim her interest in any event.

The requested distribution solely to petitioner is thus not supported legally or factually.

These calendar notes are not a tentative ruling by the court on the merits of the petition. They are provided to assist the court and the parties to prepare for the hearing. Local Rule 80.1.4.
