

Here, the Court has previously imposed sanctions of $9,600.00, which have not been paid. Defendant requests an additional $13,450.00 in attorney fees for bringing this motion. This is based on rates of $690 per hour, and $545 per hour. No breakdown of hours spent has been provided, so the Court cannot determine whether the time spent was reasonable. Using the lower hourly rate, this would amount to over 24 hours on the preparation of this motion.

The Court finds the hourly rate and hours requested unreasonable. A reasonable hourly rate is determined by the prevailing rate charged to attorneys of similar skill and experience in the relevant community. See PLCM Group, Inc. v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1095. A party seeking to recover hourly rates for out-of-town counsel that are higher than the local rates must show (1) a good faith effort to find local counsel, and (2) demonstrate that hiring local counsel was impracticable. Nichols v. City of Taft (2007) 155 Cal.App.4th 1233, 1243. There is no evidence supporting an award of hourly rates higher than local rates. Based on the Court's knowledge and experience, it finds $400 per hour to be reasonable in this matter. The Court will also reduce the hours requested to 8, since no itemized breakdown was provided. Sanctions will be imposed in the amount of $3,200.

The Motion for Terminating Sanctions is GRANTED in part. The requests for terminating or evidentiary sanctions is made moot by the granting of Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment. The request for an order of sanctions jointly and severally against Plaintiff and Counsel is granted, in the amount of $3,200. Defendant's proposed order will be modified.
