1. ASTRID RAMIREZ V. ADRIAN COYOTL

26FL0808

This matter is before the court for hearing of the Request for Order (RFO) filed by the Petitioner on August 24, 2026, to set spousal support and child support for the parties' three minor children. The RFO also included a request for order shortening time, which the court granted. The court ordered Petitioner to serve the RFO on or before August 31, 2026, and ordered the Respondent to file and serve a Responsive Declaration on or before September 14, 2026.

Petitioner previously filed an Income and Expense Declaration (I&E) on August 20, 2026. Proof of service of summons, filed September 02, 2026, shows that Petitioner's RFO and I&E were both personally served upon Respondent on September 01, 2026. This is untimely service under the court's order shortening time, which required service to be made on or before August 31, 2026.

Nonetheless, on September 11, 2026, Respondent filed a timely Responsive Declaration and I&E, copies of which were personally served upon Petitioner that same day per the proof of service filed September 14, 2026. Based on these filings, the court finds Respondent has waived any defect in service of the RFO.

On September 17, 2026, Petitioner filed a Reply Declaration, a copy of which was electronically served upon Respondent on September 18, 2026, per the proof of service filed that same date. Proof of service filed September 17, 2026, shows Petitioner also served a copy of her Reply Declaration that day via mail.

Pursuant to the Temporary Restraining Order issued August 26, 2026, in this case, Petitioner has temporary sole physical custody of the children and Respondent has non-professionally supervised visitation with the children two days per week for up to two hours each visit. Therefore, for purposes of calculating child support, the court finds that Respondent's custody timeshare is 2 percent.

Petitioner's I&E indicates she works as a housekeeper for Cedar Pines Resort cleaning rental cabins. Petitioner is paid $80 per cabin she cleans. However, she does not indicate how many cabins she cleans. She states she is paid in cash and does not receive any paystubs. Her I&E indicates her average monthly income is $2,000.

In his Responsive Declaration, Respondent claims that Petitioner's gross monthly income is actually about $3,000 to $4,000.¹ In her Reply Declaration, Petitioner declares her average monthly income "is more like $3,200 over the course of the past," but explains that when the season is "slow" she does not make enough money.

Respondent's I&E indicates he began a new job on September 03, 2026, at Edify Construction, where he earns $18 per hour. As of September 11, 2026 (the date Respondent filed his I&E), he had not received a paycheck yet. On September 3, 2026, Respondent worked eight hours; on September 4, 2026, five hours; on September 8, 2026, four hours; and on September 09, 2026, five hours. The court calculates Respondent's current gross monthly income as $2,340 ($18 per hour x 30 hours per week x 52 weeks per year = $28,080; $28,080 / 12 months = $2,340 per month).

As shown in the attached XSpouse calculation printout, Respondent is ordered to pay Child Support to the Petitioner in the amount of $1,012.00 beginning September 01, 2026, and the first of each month thereafter until further order of the court. Respondent is not required to pay any Spousal Support at this time.²

The court sets a review hearing for December 30, 2026, to be heard concurrently with the hearing on Petitioner's RFO filed August 20, 2026. The court will retain jurisdiction over the issue of child support and spousal support, including jurisdiction to retroactively modify the support amounts based upon updated information provided to the court. The court orders both parties to file and serve a current I&E, as well as any supplemental declarations, on or before December 18, 2026.

TENTATIVE RULING #1: RESPONDENT IS ORDERED TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT TO THE PETITIONER IN THE AMOUNT OF $1,012.00 BEGINNING SEPTEMBER 01, 2026, AND THE FIRST OF EACH MONTH THEREAFTER UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT. RESPONDENT IS NOT REQUIRED TO PAY ANY SPOUSAL SUPPORT AT THIS TIME.

THE COURT SETS A REVIEW HEARING FOR DECEMBER 30, 2026, TO BE HEARD CONCURRENTLY WITH THE HEARING ON PETITIONER'S RFO FILED AUGUST 20, 2026. THE COURT WILL RETAIN JURISDICTION OVER THE ISSUE OF CHILD SUPPORT AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT, INCLUDING JURISDICTION TO RETROACTIVELY MODIFY THE SUPPORT AMOUNTS BASED UPON UPDATED INFORMATION PROVIDED TO THE COURT. THE COURT ORDERS BOTH PARTIES TO FILE AND SERVE A CURRENT I&E, AS WELL AS ANY SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATIONS, ON OR BEFORE DECEMBER 18, 2026.

NO HEARING ON THIS MATTER WILL BE HELD UNLESS A REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT IS TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY THROUGH THE COURT'S WEBSITE OR BY PHONE CALL TO THE COURT AT (530) 573-3042 BY 4:00 P.M. ON THE DAY THE TENTATIVE RULING IS ISSUED. CAL.RULE CT. 3.1308; LOCAL RULE 8.05.07; SEE ALSO LEWIS V. SUPERIOR COURT, 19 CAL.4TH 1232 (1999). NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES OF A REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT AND THE GROUNDS UPON WHICH ARGUMENT IS BEING REQUESTED MUST BE MADE BY PHONE CALL OR IN PERSON BY 4:00 P.M. ON THE DAY THE TENTATIVE RULING IS ISSUED. CAL.RULE CT. 3.1308; LOCAL RULE 8.05.07.

² The XSpouse calculation shows that, as the higher earner, Petitioner would generally be responsible for paying Respondent $235 Spousal Support under the guideline formula. However, there is presently no request before the court to order Petitioner to pay Respondent Spousal Support.

2. DAVID SMITH V. CYNTHIA SMITH

22FL0136

This matter is before the court for hearing of the Request for Order (RFO) filed by the Petitioner on July 29, 2026, to compel Respondent's required disclosures under Family Code sections 2104 and 2105.

A hearing on the RFO was originally set for September 09, 2026. On September 08, 2026, the court issued a tentative ruling that incorrectly stated there was no proof of service for the RFO in the court's file. In fact, Petitioner filed proof of service on August 12, 2026, which shows the RFO was personally served upon Respondent on August 11, 2026. During the September 9 hearing, the court vacated its tentative ruling and continued the matter to September 23, 2026. The court ordered Petitioner to serve Respondent notice of the continued hearing date, as well as the court's tentative ruling issued September 08, 2026. On September 15, 2026, Petitioner filed the required proof of service, showing personal service of the September 08, 2026, tentative ruling and September 09, 2026, minute order on September 12, 2026.

Also on September 15, 2026, Respondent filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure and Income and Expense Declaration (Judicial Council form FL-141), indicating that she served the required preliminary and final disclosures upon Petitioner via mail that same day. Therefore, the Petitioner's RFO appears to be moot.

The court denies the RFO as moot.

TENTATIVE RULING #2: THE COURT DENIES PETITIONER'S RFO AS MOOT.

NO HEARING ON THIS MATTER WILL BE HELD UNLESS A REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT IS TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY THROUGH THE COURT'S WEBSITE OR BY PHONE CALL TO THE COURT AT (530) 573-3042 BY 4:00 P.M. ON THE DAY THE TENTATIVE RULING IS ISSUED. CAL.RULE CT. 3.1308; LOCAL RULE 8.05.07; SEE ALSO LEWIS V. SUPERIOR COURT, 19 CAL.4TH 1232 (1999). 3. JEFFREY STEVEN VANHEE V. ASHLEY NICHOLE VANHEE

25FL0526

This matter is before the court for hearing of the Request for Order (RFO) filed by the Petitioner on August 20, 2026, to modify child custody and visitation and award $5,060 in attorney's fees and costs. The RFO also included a request for temporary emergency orders and an order shortening time, both of which the court granted. The court ordered Petitioner to serve the RFO on or before August 24, 2026, and ordered Respondent to file and serve a Responsive Declaration on or before September 04, 2026. Additionally, the court issued the following temporary emergency orders pending the September 23, 2026, hearing: Respondent shall immediately return the children to El Dorado County, California and (1) ensure that the children attend school, and (2) ensure that Petitioner gets his visitations as ordered by this court on August 19, 2026.

To date, there is no proof of service in the court's file. Respondent filed no Responsive Declaration. Due to the lack of service, the court drops the matter from the calendar. The court hereby terminates the temporary emergency orders issued August 20, 2026 (the visitation orders issued August 19, 2026, remain in effect).

TENTATIVE RULING #3: DUE TO THE LACK OF SERVICE, MATTER IS DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR. THE COURT HEREBY TERMINATES THE TEMPORARY EMERGENCY ORDERS ISSUED ON AUGUST 20, 2026.

4. LAUREN RUSSELL V. MATTHEW CADENA

SFL20210110

This matter is before the court for a five-year dismissal hearing under Code of Civil Procedure section 583.310, which provides, “[a]n action shall be brought to trial within five years after the action is commenced against the defendant.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 583.310.) The action was filed on August 06, 2021.

The matter was previously set for hearing on August 19, 2026. However, the court continued the August 19 hearing to September 23, 2026, finding that the court had provided insufficient notice of the August 19, 2026, hearing date. The court mailed Petitioner a copy of its minute order issued August 19, 2026, to Petitioner’s address on file; however, the mail was returned undeliverable.

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 583.310, the court dismisses the action without prejudice.

TENTATIVE RULING #4: PURSUANT TO CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE SECTION 583.310, THE COURT DISMISSES THE ACTION WITHOUT PREJUDICE. NO HEARING ON THIS MATTER WILL BE HELD UNLESS A REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT IS TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY THROUGH THE COURT’S WEBSITE OR BY PHONE CALL TO THE COURT AT (530) 573-3042 BY 4:00 P.M.
