Tentative Ruling:NO APPEARANCE

The Court accepts the final account and supporting financial statements contained in the Declaration in Lieu of Accounting (PR-24) filed on 1/6/2026 and directs co-conservators to file an Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge and Order (form GC-395) now that the accounting has been approved. Hearing on the status of the Ex Parte Petition for Final Discharge and Order (form GC-395) is set on February 17, 2027 at 9:00 am.

Line 2	Petitioner: Lopez, Balvina (KATZ, MILTON) Decedent: Lopez, Salvador	Petition Hearing

Tentative Ruling:APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

The court received an email dated September 17, 2026 asking for a continuance, but there is no basis to establish good cause for continuing the matter. It was on calendar 5/1/2026, with no appearance by petitioner or counsel. Nothing has been filed since that date, although the court gave directives as to what was missing. Petition is DENIED without prejudice for Petitioner's failure to file the following, despite the Court continuing the matter for these documents to be filed:

- (1) a supplement stating how the real property is currently held and provide the most recent deed;
- (2) a full copy of the Trust, as the Trust attached to the Petition filed on 4/8/2021 is missing pages;

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

The Petition for Final Distribution as supplemented is GRANTED-IN-PART and DENIED-IN-PART.

The request for extraordinary fees for Petitioner is DENIED due to the delay in administration and because Petitioner's billing statement submitted in support of administrator's request includes ordinary services that are compensated through the statutory fee. Pursuant to Probate Code 12205, the Court finds that the time taken for the administration exceeds the time required by law, the time taken was within the control of Petitioner, and the delay was not in the best interest of the estate or beneficiaries. The Court notes that Letters were issued to Petitioner on August 30, 2022 and the Petition for Final Distribution was not filed until November 25, 2025.

The request for extraordinary fees for counsel is DENIED. The Court finds that a large majority of the billing records contained in counsel's declaration do not constitute extraordinary services, and the billing records appear to be significantly padded and therefore not credible.

In determining the extraordinary compensation requested, the Court also takes into account Probate Code 12205, CRC 7.703, the amount of statutory compensation, and Petitioner and her counsel's failure to comply with Probate Code 12200.

Petitioner and counsel are reminded of the court's ruling on 5/01/2026, which read: No extraordinary fees as requested will be awarded at any time. The court finds a majority of the billing records contained in counsel's declaration do not constitute extraordinary services. Likewise, the billing statement submitted in support of administrator's request reflects ordinary services. In determining the extraordinary compensation requested, the Court also takes into account Probate Code 12205, CRC 7.703, the amount of statutory compensation, and Petitioner and her counsel's failure to comply with Probate Code 12200.

The remainder of the Petition is GRANTED and Petitioner is directed to file a revised order that modifies the estate distribution in light of the Court's denial of all extraordinary fees.

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

Petition for Instructions is GRANTED as modified, absent cogent objection. Unless petitioner can provide business/financial records showing receipt by Erlinda Amante, or her estate, of any payments on the note subsequent to October 31, 2025, the Court will grant the petition for instruction, directing petitioner to pay the remaining balance acknowledged by decedent of $103,740.03 in full. As petitioner has averred that she stands ready and able to pay the outstanding loan in full, said payment shall be in no more than 30 days. Formal revised order is required.
