Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

The Petition for Final Distribution as supplemented is GRANTED-IN-PART and DENIED-IN-PART.

The request for extraordinary fees for Petitioner is DENIED due to the delay in administration and because Petitioner's billing statement submitted in support of administrator's request includes ordinary services that are compensated through the statutory fee. Pursuant to Probate Code 12205, the Court finds that the time taken for the administration exceeds the time required by law, the time taken was within the control of Petitioner, and the delay was not in the best interest of the estate or beneficiaries. The Court notes that Letters were issued to Petitioner on August 30, 2022 and the Petition for Final Distribution was not filed until November 25, 2025.

The request for extraordinary fees for counsel is DENIED. The Court finds that a large majority of the billing records contained in counsel's declaration do not constitute extraordinary services, and the billing records appear to be significantly padded and therefore not credible.

In determining the extraordinary compensation requested, the Court also takes into account Probate Code 12205, CRC 7.703, the amount of statutory compensation, and Petitioner and her counsel's failure to comply with Probate Code 12200.

Petitioner and counsel are reminded of the court's ruling on 5/01/2026, which read: No extraordinary fees as requested will be awarded at any time. The court finds a majority of the billing records contained in counsel's declaration do not constitute extraordinary services. Likewise, the billing statement submitted in support of administrator's request reflects ordinary services. In determining the extraordinary compensation requested, the Court also takes into account Probate Code 12205, CRC 7.703, the amount of statutory compensation, and Petitioner and her counsel's failure to comply with Probate Code 12200.

The remainder of the Petition is GRANTED and Petitioner is directed to file a revised order that modifies the estate distribution in light of the Court's denial of all extraordinary fees.
