

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF VENTURA

Tentative Ruling

2026CUDF064741: VICTORIA HARTLEY vs JEANETTE HADDAD

09/22/2026 in Department 40

Motion to Compel Defendant Jeanette Hadad's Responses to Request for Production of Documents, Set One

VICTORIA HARTLEY vs JEANETTE HADDAD

2026CUDF064741

September 22, 2026, 8:20 am□

Judge Hayashi Department 40

(MMayer)□

Motion: Plaintiff's Four Discovery Motions

Recommendation: The court intends to DENY Plaintiffs' four Motions to Compel Discovery. Plaintiff appears to have served the initial discovery on Defendant in violation of Code of Civil Procedure sections 2030.020(b); 2031.020(b); and 2033.020(b). P emailed notice and acknowledgment of receipt along with the discovery on April 28, 2026 (Hartley 9/8/26 Dec. at ¶13). However, because Plaintiff had served Defendant with the summons on April 20, 2026 (Proof of Service of Summons on April 20, 2026), ten days had not elapsed before service of the discovery (and defendant had not appeared). Defendant denies having received Plaintiff's May 6, 2026, discovery sent by mail. (Haddad 8/14/26 Dec. at ¶4). The court determines the prudent course to be for Plaintiff to re-serve the discovery. Although Defendant has not otherwise agreed to electronic service, Plaintiff is authorized to serve the discovery (only) by email on Plaintiff to expedite this process.