CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVPS2601596	LEON YUEN VS ROLAND MARKETING LLC	MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER AND FOR MONETARY SANCTIONS

Tentative Ruling: No tentative ruling. Motion continued to 10.09.26 to be heard with Case Management Conference.

A motion for protective order must be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration. (CCP §§ 2017.020 and 2019.030(a).) Effective 1.01.26, CCP § 2016.040(a) requires that any meet and confer declaration in support of a motion reflect a reasonable, good faith attempt to resolve the issues either in person, by telephone, or by videoconference. Here, the parties only exchanged emails. (Declaration of Jack Spencer Roland, ¶¶ 2-3.) This is not a good faith attempt and there is no indication any efforts took place in person, by telephone, or by videoconference. The court continues the hearing and orders a further proper meet and confer effort regarding whether the discovery is necessary in light of the majority of requests being based on the First Amended Cross-Complaint. Plaintiff indicated a willingness to withdraw the discovery and serve revised discovery based on the second amended cross-complaint, assuming one is filed. If Plaintiff withdraws the discovery, the motion can be denied as moot.

The hearing on the Motion for Protective Order is continued to 10.09.26. The parties are ordered to meet and confer via in person, phone or video conference for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the requests at issue in this motion. After meeting and conferring, the parties shall 5 court days before the continued hearing date set above do one of the following:

- (1) Defendants/Cross-Complainants vacate the hearing on the motion;
- (2) Parties file with the court a joint declaration stating the means by which the parties met and conferred and what issues, if any, the parties were able to resolve and what issues remain for the court's ruling.

No further briefing shall be permitted.
