19-PRO-00075	Conservatorship of LAURI L. BORDINERO	SUCCESSOR
Line 1	Proposed Conservatee: BORDINERO, LAURI L. (EISENBERG, MARTA C.) Petitioner: BORDINERO, MARIA L. (ROWE, JESSICA L.) Petitioner: Galino, Michael (ROWE, JESSICA L.) The Court intends to order the following:

3. Trust bond is fixed at $86,000.
4. Bond for the estate is waived.

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED (Zoom allowed)

Parties to appear to provide the status of the trust matter in Santa Clara County. The Court is inclined to GRANT this petition for final distribution, as the objections relating to the disposition of decedent's personal property are better addressed in the Trust matter. The only asset of this estate was the annuity, which would be distributed to the Trustee of the Cynthia Christopher Revocable Living Trust. Petitioner has attested to the fact that no payment of annuity income was made during the accounting period, and has attached statements in support thereof. Objectors' position is on "information and belief" but unsupported by any facts.

APPEARANCE ORDERED

This review of the accounting of the conservatorship estate is for the period of 3/22/2024 through 3/22/2025. With the filing of the amended request and order for wavier of accounting filed 5/19/2026, documentation filed 6/18/2025 demonstrates that the known assets of conservatee's estate were valued at less than $15,000 during that period. This is comprised of her accounts at San Mateo Credit Union. What remains unknown is what is the value of assets the conservatee has at Charles Schwab. Petitioner to appear and update the court as to what progress has been made since the last court hearing in obtaining information from Charles Schwab. The court cannot grant the request to waive an accounting until that information is provided. Petitioner is advised that at the time of the next required accounting, however, if the assets exceed $15,000 [as they do now at the current value of the San Mateo Credit Union accounts], an accounting will need to be filed.

Notes: APPEARANCE ORDERED The will lodged with the court is technically not self-proving in that the year in which it was subscribed and witnessed is missing. The court notes that this pour-over will relates to the Chang Family Revocable Trust, which was signed on 11/16,/2005. This will is dated only as "November 16 th ." The Court needs evidence as to what year it was signed and witnessed. That can either be accomplished through proof of a subscribing witness, or by declaration from the petitioner, under oath, that she was in fact present pm 11/16/2005 when BOTH the will and trust were executed. The court would accept her oral testimony at the hearing.

His recitation of an incident involving his father when he was in middle school is insufficient to demonstrate that his father has caused physical harm inflicted non-accidentally (Welf. & Inst. Code § 300(a)). Abuse means to intentionally or recklessly cause or attempt to cause bodily injury. See Cal. Fam. Code§ 6203(a) (1). Furthermore, "[a]buse is not limited to the actual infliction of physical injury or assault. See Cal. Fam. Code § 6203(b). Abuse occurs when "[t]he child has suffered, or there is a substantial risk that the child will suffer, serious physical harm inflicted non-accidentally upon the child by the child's parent or guardian." Inst. Code §300(a). The single incident [date unknown but described as when the 20-year old petitioner was in middle school] from more than five years ago does not meet these definitions.

The information provided is insufficient to establish neglect. The petitioner states that his father was routinely angry and his mother passive. However, more must be shown. Neglect includes conduct of a parent resulting in serious emotional damage (Welf. & Inst. Code § 300(c)); Harm as a result of failure or inability to supervise or protect (Welf. & Inst. Code § 300(b)(1)); Neglect/cruel treatment (Fam. Code § 7823(a)) In his declaration the petitioner states "throughout my school years, I received neither financial nor emotional support from my family....Most of the time, I wasn't given an allowance... In high school, I had to work part-time after school to meet my own needs. Because I received no support from my family, I had to drop out of school in the middle of my senior year" This begs the question: did his parents actually neglect him? It is not established that is the case where by his own declaration it appears he was provided food, clothing, shelter and an education. Not receiving an allowance is of no consequence, assuming his parents provided for him otherwise. Why did his working a part-time job necessitate that he drop out of high school? The same issue pertains to any finding of abandonment, which means a child left without provision for support, or the parent leaving the child in the custody of another without providing support, or without communication, with an intent to abandon. Fam. Code 7822. What the petitioner has described is an unhappy homelife with an overbearing father which the Petitioner chose to leave. There is insufficient evidence that his parents intended to leave him in the care of another without providing any support or communication. He states that he left Turkey of his own accord, and that he has "very limited communication with his family." That does not prove that his parents have abandoned him, as it is open to interpretation.

Petitioner may submit an amended declaration, but the Court is not sure that there will be sufficient time for this matter to be adjudicated prior to his 21st birthday.
