Melissa Nguyen v. Estevan Amador, et al.

26TRCV00205

1. Shane

Bauman, of Bauman Law APLC, Counsel for Plaintiff Melissa Nguyen, Motion to be Relieved as Counsel

TENTATIVE RULING

Shane Bauman, of Bauman Law APLC, Counsel for Plaintiff Melissa Nguyen, Motion to be Relieved as Counsel is continued.

Background

Plaintiff

filed the Complaint on January 21, 2026. Plaintiff alleges that she was involved in a motor vehicle accident with Defendants.

Motion

to be Relieved as Counsel

Counsel

states, in the declaration, valid reasons for withdrawal. Counsel states that there has been a breakdown in communication and the relationship between counsel and Plaintiff. The Court finds that the attorney has filed the required declaration. The Court also finds that the attorney has shown sufficient reasons why the motion to be relieved as counsel should be granted and why the attorney brought a motion under Code of Civil Procedure § 284(2) instead of filing a consent under section 284(1).

However, moving party failed to file a proof of service to establish that the motion was served on the client. Thus, the motion to be relieved as counsel is continued to _____.

Shane

Bauman is ordered to give notice of the Court's ruling.
