25VECV06153 BARRETT V VW

The court grants the motion to compel the deposition of the plaintiff and orders that the deposition take place remotely on 8/19/2026 at 9:30 a.m. by Zoom.

The court does not order the production of documents because of the absence of a separate statement which is required by CRC 3.1345 ("must") when seeking documents at a deposition.

However, the absence of an order does not mean the plaintiff can ignore the deposition notice which required production of documents.

Monetary sanctions are issued in the sum of $2,000 against plaintiff and plaintiff's counsel, jointly and severally, for discovery abuse without substantial justification. Once the original deposition notice was served, plaintiff's counsel was required to provide alternative dates. None were ever provided in the many months since then. Sanctions payable by 8/19/2026 to the Client Trust Account of defense counsel.

CLERK TO GIVE NOTICE.
