ANALYSIS:

Counts
Law Firm, PC and Michelle Switzer arbitrated a dispute over Switzer's unpaid legal fee balance of $5,857.00. The arbitrator found in favor of Counts for that amount and Counts now petitions to confirm the arbitration award.

The award was served on the parties on April 8, 2026, and thus the award became binding on May 8, 2026 because no party sought a trial within 30 days. (Bus.
& Prof. Code, § 6203, subd. (b).) The award can therefore be confirmed in the same manner as provided in Code of Civil Procedure section 1285, et seq. Counts has complied with the relevant procedural prerequisites to confirm the award regarding filing requirements, service of the petition and notice of hearing, service of the award, and timeliness of the petition. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 1283.6, 1285.4, 1288, 1288.4, 1290.4.)

Accordingly, the Court GRANTS Counts
Law Firm's petition.

Counts is to give notice.
