TENTATIVE RULING:

Plaintiff Kewan Vines' Motion to Compel Defendant's Answers to Interrogatories is granted. Defendant Milad Investments, LLC is to serve verified responses to Special Interrogatories, Set One, without objections, within 20 days' service of this order.

Defendant and counsel of record are jointly and severally ordered to pay sanctions of $500.00 to Plaintiff's counsel within 20 days' service of this order.

Analysis:

On May 11, 2026, Plaintiff Kewan Vines ("Plaintiff") served

Special Interrogatories, Set One, on Defendant Milad Investments, LLC ("Defendant"). (Motion, Mehrban Decl., Exh. A.) Despite a meet-and-confer effort extending the deadline to serve verified responses without objections, Defendant has not served responses. (Id. at ¶¶4-5 and Exh. B.) Plaintiff filed and served the instant Motion to Compel Defendant's Answers to Interrogatories, on July 31, 2026. No opposition has been filed to date.

There is no requirement for a prior meet and confer effort before a motion to compel initial responses can be filed. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290.) Further, the motion can be brought any time after the responding party fails to provide the responses.

(Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290.) Based on Defendant's failure to respond to the propounded discovery, Plaintiff is entitled to an order compelling it to serve verified responses to the discovery requests without objections.

Plaintiff also moves for an award of sanctions under Code of Civil Procedure section 2030.290, subdivision (c), which provides for sanctions if a party unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel responses without reasonable justification. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290, subd. (c) [“The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 2023.010) against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel a response to interrogatories, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.”].) However, Defendant did not file an opposition to the instant Motion.

Plaintiff alternatively cites California Rules of Court, rule 3.1348, which does provide for an award of sanctions “in favor of a party who files a motion to compel discovery, even though no opposition to the motion was filed.” (Cal. Rules of Court, 3.1348(a).) In light of this rule, Plaintiff is entitled to an award of sanctions. Sanctions are awarded against Defendant and counsel of record in the amount of $500.00 based on one hour of attorney time billed at $500.00 per hour. (Motions, Mehrban Decl., ¶6.)

Conclusion

Plaintiff Kewan Vines’ Motion to Compel Defendant’s Answers to Interrogatories is granted. Defendant Milad Investments, LLC is to serve verified responses to Special Interrogatories, Set One, without objections, within 20 days’ service of this order.
