Case #	Case Name	Tentative
01534766	Prestridge - Minor's Compromise	TENTATIVE RULING Case: Prestridge - Minor's Compromise 01534766 Calendar No: 1 Date: 09/09/26 MOTION TO SEAL (ROA 4) Petitioner Katie Gronewald ("Petitioner") moves to seal specified portions of the following documents: 1. JCC Form MC-350: Petition for Approval of Compromise (ROA 3); 2. JCC Form MC-351: Order Approving Compromise (ROAs 22/28); 3. JCC Form MC-355: Order to Deposit Funds into Blocked Account (ROAs 24/30); and 4. JCC Form MC-356: Receipt and Acknowledgement of Order (not yet filed). The court notes that Petitioner has filed public redacted versions of MC-350, MC-351, and MC-355. Unless confidentiality is required by statute or rule of court, California court records are presumed to be open to the public. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(c).) "Probate proceedings, including a petition for minor's compromise, are not closed proceedings. No statute exempts probate files from the status of public records." (Copley Press, Inc.

		v. Superior Court (1998) 63 Cal.App.4th 367, 376.) When individuals employ the public powers of state courts to accomplish private ends, “they do so in full knowledge of the possibly disadvantageous circumstance that the documents and records filed ... will be open to public inspection.” (Ibid.) Absent circumstances not present here, the court may seal the records at issue only if it expressly finds facts establishing that: 1. There exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the record; 2. The overriding interest supports sealing the record; 3. A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed; 4. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and 5. No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(d).) The party moving to have a record sealed bears the burden of proving such facts. (See H.B. Fuller Company v. Doe (2007) 151 Cal.App.4th 879, 894-895.) Petitioner has met such burden. The declaration in support of this motion sets forth facts sufficient to find overriding interests that will be prejudiced if this motion is denied. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored and no less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest. The motion is GRANTED. ROAs 3, 22, 24, 28, and 30 are to remain permanently sealed. When Petitioner is ready to file MC-356, Petitioner shall file both an unredacted form conditionally under seal and a redacted form for public record. The court will then permanently seal the unredacted version. This order is without prejudice to the right of any person to seek an order unsealing the sealed documents pursuant to CRC, Rule 2.551(h).
01437433	Compas - Trust	TENTATIVE RULING Case: Compas - Trust 01437433

		Calendar No: 3 Date: 09/09/26 MOTION TO COMPEL FURTHER RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (ROA 33) Petitioner Patricia Compas ("Petitioner") moves to compel Respondent Michael Compas ("Respondent") to respond to Petitioner's Request for Production of Documents, Set One. The evidence before the court is that Petitioner's counsel propounded the aforementioned discovery on 9/3/25. Responses were initially due 10/8/25. Five extensions were requested and granted. Thereafter, counsel for Respondent made several promises that the discovery responses were forthcoming. No responses had been served as of the date this motion was filed (i.e., 12/29/25). Moving party need not show anything more to obtain an order compelling responses to a document demand. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.300.) Thus, the motion to compel responses to Requests for Production, Set One, (ROA 33) is GRANTED. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2031.300(c), the court imposes reasonable monetary sanctions of $719.40 (i.e., 1.5 hours x $425.00, plus $60.00 filing fee) payable by Respondent to the Law Offices of Daniel J. Cooper within 30 days of notice of this ruling, extended for method of service, or by any further date as agreed upon by the parties in writing. Counsel for Petitioner is ordered to give notice of ruling.

01534785	Stamer - Minor's Compromise	TENTATIVE RULING Case: Stamer - Minor's Compromise 01534785 Calendar No: 7 Date: 09/09/26

MOTION TO SEAL (ROA 4)

Petitioner K.S. ("Petitioner") moves to seal specified portions of the following documents:

1. Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds for Minor (ROA 3);
2. Amended Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds for Minor (ROA 17);
3. Response to Probate Notes (ROA 15);
4. Order Approving Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds of Judgment for Minor (ROA 26);
5. Motion to Seal Petition for Approval of Minor's Compromise (ROA 4);
6. Order re: Motion to Seal Petition for Approval of Minor's Compromise (ROA 27); and
7. Amended Motion to Seal (ROA 29).

The court notes that Petitioner has filed public redacted versions of each of the foregoing documents, except for the initial Motion to Seal (ROA 4). As to the initial Motion to Seal, there does not appear to be a need for redaction.

Counsel should be prepared to discuss.

Unless confidentiality is required by statute or rule of court, California court records are presumed to be open to the public. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(c).) "Probate proceedings, including a petition for minor's compromise, are not closed proceedings. No statute exempts probate files from the status of public records." (Copley Press, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 63 Cal.App.4th 367, 376.) When individuals employ the public powers of state courts to accomplish private ends, "they do so in full knowledge of the possibly disadvantageous circumstance that the documents and records filed ... will be open to public inspection." (Ibid.)

Absent circumstances not present here, the court may seal the records at issue only if it expressly finds facts establishing that:

1. There exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the record;
2. The overriding interest supports sealing the record;
3. A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed;
4. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and

		5. No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(d).) The party moving to have a record sealed bears the burden of proving such facts. (See H.B. Fuller Company v. Doe (2007) 151 Cal.App.4th 879, 894-895.) Petitioner has met such burden. The declaration in support of this motion sets forth facts sufficient to find overriding interests that will be prejudiced if this motion is denied. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored and no less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest. The motion is GRANTED. ROAs 3, 15, 17, 26, 27, and 29 are to remain permanently sealed. This order is without prejudice to the right of any person to seek an order unsealing the sealed documents pursuant to CRC, Rule 2.551(h).
01534755	Bandari - Minor's Compromise	TENTATIVE RULING Case: Bandari - Minor's Compromise 01534755 Calendar No: 9 Date: 09/09/26 MOTION TO SEAL (ROA 4) Petitioner Daniel Bandari ("Petitioner") moves to seal specified portions of the following documents: 1. JCC Form MC-350: Petition for Approval of Compromise (ROA 3); 2. JCC Form MC-351: Order Approving Compromise (ROA 22); 3. JCC Form MC-355: Order to Deposit Funds into Blocked Account (not yet filed); and 4. JCC Form MC-356: Receipt and Acknowledgement of Order (not yet filed). The court notes that Petitioner has filed public redacted versions of MC-350 and MC-351. (ROAs 2 and 18.)

On the court's own motion, the court seals the Declaration of Brian Sutter (ROA 20) filed 8/14/26. Mr. Sutter is ordered to file a public redacted version of said Declaration, redacting account numbers and dollar amounts.

Unless confidentiality is required by statute or rule of court, California court records are presumed to be open to the public. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(c).) "Probate proceedings, including a petition for minor's compromise, are not closed proceedings. No statute exempts probate files from the status of public records." (Copley Press, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 63 Cal.App.4th 367, 376.) (Ibid.)

Absent circumstances not present here, the court may seal the records at issue only if it expressly finds facts establishing that:

1. There exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the record;
 2. The overriding interest supports sealing the record;
 3. A substantial probability exists that the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed;
 4. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored; and
 5. No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest.
- (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(d).)

The party moving to have a record sealed bears the burden of proving such facts. (See H.B. Fuller Company v. Doe (2007) 151 Cal.App.4th 879, 894-895.) Petitioner has met such burden.

The declaration in support of this motion sets forth facts sufficient to find overriding interests that will be prejudiced if this motion is denied. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored and no less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest.

The motion is GRANTED. ROAs 3, 20, and 22 are to be permanently sealed.

When Petitioner is ready to file MC-355 and MC-356, Petitioner shall file both an unredacted form conditionally under seal and a redacted form for public record. The court will then permanently seal the unredacted versions.

		This order is without prejudice to the right of any person to seek an order unsealing the sealed documents pursuant to CRC, Rule 2.551(h).
01534775	Watkins - Minor's Compromise	TENTATIVE RULING Case: Watkins - Minor's Compromise 01534775 Calendar No: 10 Date: 09/09/26 MOTION TO SEAL (ROA 4) Petitioner G.R. ("Petitioner") moves to seal specified portions of the following documents: 1. Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds for Minor (ROA 3); 2. Amended Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds for Minor (ROA 17); 3. Response to Probate Notes (ROA 15); 4. Order Approving Compromise of Claim or Action or Disposition of Proceeds of Judgment for Minor (ROA 23); 5. Motion to Seal Petition for Approval of Minor's Compromise (ROA 4); 6. Order re: Motion to Seal Petition for Approval of Minor's Compromise (ROA 35); and 7. Amended Motion to Seal (ROA 29). On the court's own motion, the court adds the Declaration of Courtney Kiehl (ROA 32) filed 8/24/26. The court notes that Petitioner has filed public redacted versions of each of the foregoing documents, except for the initial Motion to Seal (ROA 4). As to the initial Motion to Seal, there does not appear to be a need for redaction. Counsel should be prepared to discuss. Unless confidentiality is required by statute or rule of court, California court records are presumed to be open to the public. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 2.550(c).) "Probate proceedings, including a petition for minor's compromise, are not closed proceedings. No statute exempts probate files from the status of public records." (Copley Press, Inc. v. The proposed sealing is narrowly tailored and no less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest. The motion is GRANTED. ROAs 3, 15, 17, 23, 29, 32, and 35 are to remain permanently sealed. If/when Petitioner is ready to file MC-355 and MC-356, Petitioner shall file both an unredacted form conditionally under seal and a redacted form for public record. The court will then permanently seal the unredacted versions. This order is without prejudice to the right of any person to seek an order unsealing the sealed documents pursuant to CRC, Rule 2.551(h).
