CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2402140	COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE ON BEHALF OF RIVERSIDE UNIVERSITY HEALTH SYSTEM VS AETNA HEALTH OF CALIFORNIA, INC.	MOTION FOR RACHEL LEFF BLUMBERG TO APPEAR AS COUNSEL PRO HAC VICE FOR DEFENDANTS AS TO AETNA HEALTH OF CALIFORNIA, INC., AETNA HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, AETNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Tentative Ruling:

California Business and Professions Code §6125 provides that only active members of the California State Bar shall practice law in this state. California Rule of Court 9.40 allows state courts to give permission for out-of-state attorneys who are not licensed in California to appear on behalf of a party in a particular case as counsel pro hac vice. The court can only permit appearances that are made in association with an active California State Bar member who acts as the attorney of record for the party.

CRC 9.40 requires that an application to appear pro hac vice be made in writing and be verified. The application must state the applicant attorney's office and residence addresses; the courts to which the attorney has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission; that the attorney is a member in good standing in those courts; that the attorney is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court; the title of the court and cause in which the attorney has filed an application to appear pro hac vice in California within the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted; and the name, address, and telephone number of the active member of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record. No person is eligible to appear as counsel pro hac vice if they are a resident of California; are regularly employed in California; or are regularly engaged in substantial business, professional, or other activities in California.

The Application to appear pro hac vice must be served on the San Francisco office of the State Bar of California, which must also be paid a fee to defray administration expenses. Absent special circumstances, repeated appearances by any attorney under the Rule is a cause for denial of an application (Walter E. Heller Western, Inc. vs. Superior Court (County of Los Angeles) (1980) 111 Cal. App. 3d 706, 710). While appearing pro hac vice, an out-of-state attorney submits to the jurisdiction of state courts regarding state laws governing attorney conduct to the same extent as a California State Bar member. A trial court's inherent powers include the authority to revoke an attorney's pro hac vice status when that attorney has engaged in conduct that would be sufficient to disqualify a California attorney (Sheller vs. Superior Court of Los Angeles County (2008) 158 Cal. App. 4th 1697, 1716). All requirements of CRC 9.40 appear to have been met; the Court approves the application of Rachel Leff Blumberg to appear Pro Hac Vice. Submitted order has been signed by the Court.
