REQUEST FOR ORDER OF VISITATION (PARENTING TIME) AND ENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDER

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner, Sabrina Caro (Mother) and Respondent, Jose Stulzer (Father). There are two minor children subject to this proceeding: Sofia Stulzer (DOB: 08/29/12) and Jaziel Stulzer (DOB: 01/10/25).
- 2) On July 15, 2026, Father filed a Request for Order seeking, what the Court interprets, as an enforcement of the visitation orders as they pertain to the children's birthdays. Father is asking for make up time because he states Mother did not permit him to have his birthday time with the children this year. He gets the children on their birthdays in even years.
- 3) On August 11, 2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration in which she asks the Court to clarify the birthday schedule, to the extent it does not conflict with a June 9, 2025 Findings and Order After Hearing (this Court did not locate a FOAH filed June 9, 2025, nor any other which purports to modify the parenting plan in 2025).

- 4) On August 17, 2026, the Court held a readiness hearing and referred the parties to Family Court Services (FCS) Mediation on August 18, 2026 and set a return hearing on September 15, 2026.
- 5) On August 24, 2026, the parties entered into a stipulation and order, which provides that they will use communication application called AppClose.
- 6) On September 4, 2026, Father filed a Responsive Declaration. The Court notes that this is not an appropriate filing, as Father is the moving party. The Court will consider this filing a Reply to Mother's Responsive Declaration.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor child(ren) is the United States.
- 2) Father's request for "make up" time is GRANTED. Father shall have care and custody of the minor children on any weekend he chooses from Friday after school through Sunday at 6:00 p.m. For starters, the Court was unable to locate an order from June of 2025. However, Judge Evangelista's order from 2021 is clear and not ambiguous. As such, Mother should have given Father the weekend for the children's birthdays. Given that Father was not provided this time, his request for "make up" time is granted. Father shall notify Mother of his intent to exercise "make up" time no later than two weeks from the makeup days of his choosing. All of Father's make up days shall be completed prior to December 31, 2026.
- 3) Mother's request for clarification of the birthday time is DENIED. The Court is clear to this Court.
- 4) Mother's request for "limited birthday visitation" is also DENIED.
- 5) Mother's request for modification of exchange location is DENIED, as Father states that the current exchange location is working well and Mother has not provided this Court with any basis by which such a modification would be warranted.
- 6) Counsel for Mother shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 7) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other

1 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
2 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
3 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within
4 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
5 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties in this matter are Petitioner James Dell'Eva (Father) and Respondent Nikki Tran-Dell'Eva (Mother). The parties agree they were married for at least 14 years. The parties have two minor children, Collette (DOB: 10/1/2009) and Luca (DOB: 3/1/2013).
- 2) On 5/8/2025, a Stipulation and Order Re Child Custody, Timeshare, and Other Orders was filed providing that the parties share joint legal and physical custody, and the parties have a 50/50 timeshare with the children.
- 3) On 7/1/2025, Father filed a Request for Order seeking guideline child support retroactive to 11/19/2024 (the date Father filed his Petition for Dissolution), temporary guideline spousal support, Smith / Ostler child support, $18,500 in need-based attorney's fees, and an order requiring Mother to pay Father one-half of their 2024 federal and state tax refunds in the amount of $4,227. Father states that he lives in a separate property house (that does not have a mortgage) that he inherited from his mother. Father states that he has not worked since 2019 when he was employed at Starbucks as a retail manager (earning $4,333 per month). Father states that after he

1 left his job at Starbucks (at Mother's suggestion due to the "anxiety, stress, and trauma he
2 suffered working there"), he shouldered the load of assisting the children to participate in their
3 numerous extracurricular activities, ensuring their son's reading level rose to grade-level, and 4 frequently volunteering for the children's school and extracurricular events. Father states that his 5 taking on these responsibilities permitted Mother to advance in her career.

6 4) On 8/8/2025, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration. Mother states she moved out of the family
7 home on 7/1/2025 and that she was covering all of the household expenses until then. Mother
8 states that Father's request for retroactive financial support is inappropriate. Mother states she is 9 still paying for Father's car insurance and registration, the children's monthly insurance, and 10 various expenses for the children such as cell phones, swim lessons, and clothing. Mother states
11 that their daughter's tuition for 2025 – 2026 is $19,500 and Father contributed $2,925. Mother
12 states that she incurred $17,995 to move out of the marital home and purchase new furniture.
13 Mother states that she received a $135,632 bonus in March 2025, and the net amount received
14 was $84,838. Mother states that she used these funds to pay over $52,000 charges to their joint
15 credit card, $19,500 to relocate to a new residence, and $6,750 for private school tuition. Mother
16 asks the Court to impute Father with a salary of $75,000 per year ($6,250 per month). Mother
17 also notes that the home where Father lives has an in-law unit which he could rent out for $1,800
18 per month. Mother also asks the Court to impute additional income to Father because he pays no
19 rent or mortgage, order Father to seek work and submit job search logs and order the parties to 20 share equally private school tuition, extracurricular activities, and unreimbursed healthcare costs.
21 Mother also asks the Court to order each party to pay their own attorney's fees.

22 5) On 8/19/2025, Father filed a Reply Declaration. Father now asks the Court to order child and 23 temporary spousal support retroactive to 3/1/2025. Father reiterates his requests for $18,500 in 24 need-based attorney's fees and $4,277 for one-half of the 2024 federal and state tax refunds.
25 Father also asks the Court to order the parties to share 70 / 30 child support add-ons. Father states
26 that he has a "full shoulder separation" and has surgery scheduled on 8/19/2025. Father states that
27 he wants to work and he is working with a life coach funded by his brother to filed a stable field
28 compatible with his parental role. Father states his timeline "has been extended due to medical 29 issues (shoulder and ulcers)." Father asks the Court to issue a seek work order and provide Father

1 with more time before imputing him with income. Father states that their daughter has asked him
2 not to rent the downstairs apartment because she feels uncomfortable with a stranger sharing their
3 home. Father also disputes who contributed to the household expenses before Mother vacated the 4 family residence.

5 6) On 8/26/2025, the parties and their attorneys appeared for a hearing on Father's 7/1/2025 Request
6 for Order. Per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 9/19/2025, the Court ordered Father to 7 seek work and issued base and Smith / Ostler child and temporary spousal support orders. The 8 Court set a review hearing for 1/29/2026 on the issues of Father's compliance with the Seek Work
9 Order and to review child and temporary spousal support. The review hearing has been continued
10 multiple times and was most recently continued to 9/15/2026.

11 7) The parties have informed the Court that on 9/15/2026 they would like to have a status
12 conference in lieu of a review hearing and are requesting a future Mandatory Settlement
13 Conference date be set.

14 B. Findings and Order

15 1) The parties are ordered to appear for a status conference and to set a future Mandatory
16 Settlement Conference date.

REQUEST FOR ORDER OF REQUEST FOR ORDER RE CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION
CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION (PARENTING TIME)

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner, Stefan E. Adler (Father) and Respondent, Jennifer Rosdail (Mother).
They share two minor children named Hugo Adler (07/04/13) and Mose Adler (07/04/13).
- 2) On May 19, 2026, Father filed a Request for Order seeking initial child custody and visitation orders. In particular, Father was seeking the following orders for joint legal and joint physical custody and a week on/week off parenting plan.
- 3) On June 29, 2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration to Father's RFO in which she asks the Court to deny Father's requests.
- 4) On September 1, 2026, Mother files an additional Responsive Declaration (not denoted as a supplemental).

B. Findings and Order

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in

1 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
2 child is the United States.

3 2) Father's request for Joint Legal and Joint Physical custody of the two minor children is
4 GRANTED.

5 3) Father's request for a parenting plan is premature and does not seem appropriate, at this time.

6 Therefore, his request for a week on/week off schedule is DENIED, without prejudice. The 7 parties still reside together and there appears (from the pleadings) to be much uncertainty. While
8 the parties reside in the same household, this Court will not lock either of them into a parenting
9 plan that may, or may not be, in the children's best interest. The parties shall maintain the status
10 quo and continue exercising the arrangement they have been informally utilizing since separation.
11 When the parties no longer reside in the same household, either one of them may file a new 12 Request for Order seeking the implementation of a formalized parenting plan, if they are unable 13 to agree.

14 4) Counsel for Father shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

15 5) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 16 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
17 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
18 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
19 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within
20 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
21 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
