WEIL AQUATRONICS, INC. vs AMELIA CARTA, Case No.

25NWCV02441

Attorney Zachary McCready moves to be relieved as counsel for Defendant Amelia Carta based upon a fundamental breakdown in the attorney-client relationship and the client's failure to fulfill agreed-upon financial obligation for legal services. Plaintiff Weil Aquatronics, Inc. conditionally opposes the motion on the following grounds: 1) monetary sanctions in the amount of $500.00 imposed by the Court on May 14, 2026 against McCready and Defendant, jointly and severally, remains unpaid; and 2) McCready does not move to be relieved as counsel for the corporate entity, Defendant Amy Carta, LLC. The monetary sanctions imposed on May 14, 2026 followed an order granting Defendants' motion to set aside default based upon mistake and excusable neglect. Specifically, McCready declared that the failure to answer the Complaint was due to a calendaring error by his office. (McCready Decl., ¶14.) As such, the Court on its own motion modifies the May 14, 2026 order nunc pro tunc to reflect that sanctions in the amount of $500.00 are imposed upon counsel only. Sanctions shall be paid within 30 days of the issuance of the instant order. McCready's motion to be relieved as counsel for Defendant Amelia Carta is GRANTED. If McCready also seeks to be relieved as counsel for Defendant Amy Carta, LLC, counsel shall separately file and serve a motion to that effect. The Court sets a Case Management Conference on December 15, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. SE-C. McCready to give notice.
