SUSAN RIDDLE and ERIC

RIDDLE,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMERICAN HONDA MOTOR

CO., INC.; et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 25STCV26919

Hearing Date: September 23, 2026

[TENTATIVE]

order RE:

defendant's four motions to compel

further discovery responses

BACKGROUND

On September 12, 2025, Plaintiffs SUSAN

RIDDLE and ERIC RIDDLE filed this action in which they claim various violations of the Song Beverly Act.

On June 30, 2026, Defendant AMERICAN HONDA MOTOR CO., INC (Honda) filed four motions to compel further discovery responses.

On September 10, 2026, Plaintiffs SUSAN RIDDLE and ERIC RIDDLE filed an opposition in which they state that the motions are moot because code compliance responses were served on September 9, 2026. Plaintiffs also contend that meet and confer. The court, however, finds that Honda adequately met and conferred prior to filing its motions. (See, Attorney Mooradian's declaration.)

LEGAL STANDARD

Upon receiving responses to its discovery requests, the propounding party may move for an order compelling further responses if the responses are incomplete or evasive, or objections are without merit or too general. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2030.300(a), 2031.310(a), 2033.290(a).)

DISCUSSION

Plaintiffs served verified responses on May 3, 2026, emailing them to Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel. Therefore, the motion is moot except as to sanctions.

Honda requests sanctions in the amount of $6,000.00. The court finds reasonable sanctions to be $2,000.00. Because of Plaintiffs actions, Honda unnecessarily incurred expenses in having to file these motions.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff's motion to compel responses is DENIED as moot. Court imposes sanctions in the amount of $2,000.00 against Plaintiff's counsel. Sanctions to be paid within 30 days of this order.
