26. S-PR-0014207 In Re the Levitre Fam Trust

Missing sufficient notice of hearing for petition to determine trust property. Use of mandatory form DE-115 is required. Form DE-120 is insufficient under Prob.C. § 851(c)(1) & (3).

If the court were to determine no further service is required, the following calendar notes are provided:

It is recommended the petition be granted as to the Associated Bank, Blaze CU, and Wings Financial accounts only.

It is recommended the petition be denied as to the Fidelity 401(k) account. Concurrent with execution of the trust, settlors executed a funding document which provides, "Tax-favored assets on which recognition of income has been deferred including but not limited to IRAs, Roth IRAs, qualified plans under IRC §401(a), . . . and qualified deferred compensation shall not be included [as trust assets] pursuant to this comprehensive transfer document and shall not be deemed transferred to the trust." This limitation precludes the requested relief.

Prob.C. § 850 relief as to the Fidelity 401(k) account cannot be supported the pourover will. The pourover will has no effect until probated. "In the absence of any transfer to [a] trust prior to [decedent's] death," assets become part of the decedent's estate despite will language expressing decedent's desire that assets be held in trust. Placencia v. Strazicich (2019) 42 Cal.App.5th 730, 735 & 743-744 (emphasis added). "It [is] error for the court to award [such property] directly to [a] trust in the absence of a probate proceeding." Id., citing Estate of Hart (1957) 151 Cal.App.2d 271, 280-281.
