Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL

The Petition is DENIED with prejudice. The findings requested by Petitioner pertain issues that have already been adjudicated and would therefore serve no purpose. The issue of revocability was previously before the Court in case 24PRO00857 with a final decision issued that the very claims sought by this re-named petition are time-barred. If Petitioner continues to seek to litigate the same issues further, the Court will consider deeming Petitioner a vexatious litigant. No action is taken on Petitioner CCP 170.1 petition as it and its attendant declaration have not been served.

Gray, Jr., be appointed limited conservator of the person of Andrea Gray, and a limited conservatorship is the least restrictive alternative to protect the limited conservatee. 2. Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

As this is a pour-over will, the court requires a copy of the Trust mentioned therein to ensure proper notice has been given to all interested persons. There is an extensive POS attached bearing the names of persons/entities not listed in the will per se, but the Court still wants to review the Trust. Counsel can submit a copy at the hearing, and if the Court is satisfied legal notice has been given, the court intends to GRANT the petition. The Court is aware of many declarations filed by Deborah Anne Davidson purportedly to support her opposition, but no formal opposition has been filed.
