

Tentative Ruling on Order for Appearance at Judgment Debtor Examination (Darrell Christensen): This matter is on calendar regarding Plaintiff Redding City Ballet’s Application and Order for Appearance and Examination of Darrell Christensen, co-owner of The Redding Arts Project. On August 11, 2026, the Court issued an Order to Appear to judgment debtor Darrell Christensen. CCP § 708.110(d) requires personal service of the Order for Appearance and Examination be made on the debtor “not less than 30 days before the date set for the examination.” There is no proof of service on file. Without proof of service on Darrell Christensen, the matter is dropped from calendar.

STUREMAN, ET AL. VS. CIMAGLIA, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 26CV-0209673

Tentative Ruling on Demurrer: Cross-Defendants Louann M. Stureman and Marc B. Stureman demur to the Cross-Complaint filed on July 6, 2026 by Catherine L. Cimaglia, James A. Cimaglia, Daniel F. Harney, Trustee of the Harney Family Trust 2018, Sharon G. Harney, Trustee of the Harney Family Trust 2018, Joanne Miser, individually and as Trustee of the Richard and Joanne Living Trust, Richard D. Miser, individually and as Trustee of the Richard and Joanne Living Trust, John William Rodman, individually and as Trustee of the John Williams Rodman Trust 2019, Catherine J. Schmidt, Kurt C. Schmidt, Kathryn L. Starr, Randy K. Starr, and Beverly Taber, individually and as Trustee of the Giles T. Kellogg Living Trust 2023 dated August 1, 2023.

For purposes of this motion, the Court will refer to Cross-Defendants as the Sturemans and the Cross-Complainants as the Misers.

Meet and Confer: CCP § 430.41 requires the demurring party to “meet and confer in person or by telephone with the party who filed the pleading that is subject to demurrer for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the objections to be raised in the demurrer.” The Declaration of Craig J. Bassett indicates compliance with this requirement regarding the demurrer.

Request for Judicial Notice. Both parties made several requests for judicial notice and no objections were received. Each request is granted pursuant to Evid. Code §§ 452 and 453.

Merits. A demurrer should be sustained if the complaint fails to “state facts sufficient to constitute a valid cause of action.” CCP § 430.10(e). The court “treat[s] the demurrer as admitting all material facts properly pleaded, but not contentions, deductions or conclusions of fact or law.” Hood v. Hacienda La Puente Unified School District (1998) 65 Cal. App. 4th 435, 438. No matter how unlikely, a plaintiff’s allegations must be accepted as true for the purpose of ruling on a demurrer. Del. E. Webb Corp. v. Structural Materials Co. (1981) 123 Cal. App. 3d 593, 604. A plaintiff must plead ultimate facts that acquaint the defendant with the nature, source and extent of plaintiff’s causes of action. Doe v. City of Los Angeles (2007) 42 Cal. 4th 542, 550. The Cross-Complaint alleges two causes of action. The First Cause of Actions seeks to quiet title to an irrevocable license issued in Shasta County Case No. 194255 and the Second Cause of Action is nuisance. Sturemans demur to both.

First Cause of Action. The Sturemans demur to the First Cause of Action on the basis of claim preclusion because the Misers filed a quiet title cause of action in the previous matter that was summarily adjudicated in favor of the Sturemans. The Court notes that the previous quiet title action was as to an easement, not an irrevocable license.

The Sturemans also assert that one cannot quiet title to an irrevocable license. The irrevocable license at issue is not a property right.

[A] license does not create or convey any interest in the real property; it merely makes lawful an act that otherwise would constitute a trespass. (See 6 Miller & Starr, supra, § 15:2, 15-10 [“The licensee has a personal privilege but does not possess either an interest or right in the land or any estate in the property.” (fn. omitted)]; San Jose Parking, Inc. v. Superior Court (2003) 110

Cal.App.4th 1321, 1329 [2 Cal. Rptr. 3d 505] [“case law makes clear that licenses create no interest in real property”].)

Richardson v. Franc (2015) 233 Cal. App. 4th 744, 758-759.

In a quiet title action, “an action may be brought under this chapter to establish title against adverse claims to real or personal property or any interest therein.” CCP § 760.020(a).

The Sturemans have not provided case law holding that title to an irrevocable license cannot be quieted. As pointed out by the Misers in their opposition to the demurrer, the irrevocable license at issue in the cross-complaint is the functional equivalent to an easement. Because of the equivalencies, the Misers should be able to allege a cause of action for quiet title as to the irrevocable license. The Demurrer to the First Cause of Action is therefore OVERRULED.

Second Cause of Action. The Sturemans demur to the Second Cause of action on the basis that the Misers have failed to state a claim because not all elements of a private nuisance claim have been alleged. The elements of a private nuisance claim are set forth in CACI 2021. There are nine elements and the Misers have failed to allege all of them. However, the missing elements can be inferred from the allegations made by the Misers. For example, the Misers did not specifically allege that the Sturemans conduct was intentional and unreasonable or unintentional but negligent or reckless. However, the Misers alleged in ¶ 27 that the Sturemans “have blocked off partial use to Sandpit Road, permitting only a single lane of traffic.” The obvious inference is that the blocking was intentional. The Misers have sufficiently pleaded a private nuisance cause of action that provides adequate notice to the Sturemans. The Demurrer to the Second Cause of Action is OVERRULED.

The Demurrer is OVERRULED. The Sturemans provided a proposed Order that will be modified to reflect the Court’s ruling.

The Sturemans raised the issue of the Mandatory Settlement Conference date remaining after the trial date was vacated. The court intends on vacating the existing settlement conference. A new settlement conference will be set at the time the trial is set.

SYNCHRONY BANK VS. SILACCI

CASE NUMBER: 24CVG-01485

Tentative Ruling on Order to Show Cause Re: Sanctions: On July 30, 2026, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause Re: Sanctions to Plaintiff and Counsel Gurstel Law Firm PC for failure to timely obtain a default judgment as required by CRC 3.740(f). Proof of Service of Summons was filed on November 4, 2024. Plaintiff was required to obtain a default judgment within 360 days of the Complaint being filed on October 1, 2024. The Court notes that after the Order to Show Cause issued, Plaintiff filed a Motion for Entering Judgment Pursuant to Defendant’s Default Under the Settlement Agreement that is noticed for November 16, 2026. Hearing on the Order to Show Cause is continued to Monday, November 16, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. in Department 63. No appearance is necessary on today’s calendar.

WEBB VS. SIMPSON, ET AL.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0207020

Tentative Ruling on Order to Show Cause Re: Dismissal: An Order to Show Cause Re: Dismissal issued on July 1, 2026 to Plaintiff Amanda Kristeen Webb for her failure to appear at the prior hearings on May 11, 2026 and June 22, 2026. Plaintiff received notice of both hearings via mail. No written response has been filed. The Court notes monetary sanctions have already been imposed for Plaintiff’s failure to appear on May 11, 2026. Without sufficient excuse for failing to appear and because prior sanctions have been ineffective in ensuring Plaintiff’s attendance, the matter is dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Gov. Code § 68608(b). The clerk is directed to vacate any future dates and close the file.