Tentative Ruling

Judge Kevin C. Brazile

Department 310

Hearing Date: September 2, 2026

Case Name: Munguia v. LACMTA, et al.

Case No.: 25STCV04695

Matter: Motion for Protective Order

Moving Party: Defendant LACMTA

Responding Party: Plaintiff Salvador Munguia

Ruling: The Motion is granted in part.

Moving party to give notice.

The Court encourages all parties to appear remotely via LA CourtConnect. If submitting on the Court's tentative ruling, please follow the instructions provided above.

This is a personal injury action.

Defendant LACMTA now seeks a protective order from Plaintiff Salvador Munguia's written discovery.

Good cause must be shown for the protective order, and the issuance and formulation of the protective order are within the Court's discretion. (See, e.g., Mercury Interactive Corp. v. Klein (2007) 158 Cal.App.4th 60, 106-7; Raymond Handling Concepts Corp. v. Superior Court (1995) 39 Cal.App.4th 584, 588.)

The Court will only narrow the definition of "YOU," "YOUR," "DEFENDANT", etc., which currently includes "its assigns, employees, officers, attorneys, investigators, accountants, insurance company(s), representatives or agents, and all other persons or entities acting on behalf of Defendant LACMTA." The definition will now exclude "attorneys, investigators, accountants, insurance company(s)." These are third parties and/or the attorney-client or work product privileges are invoked by their inclusion such that the definition is inappropriately overbroad.

The Court will not enter any other orders. LACMTA is ordered to assert any objections it believes are applicable and the parties are to meet and confer. LACMTA is to respond within 30 days.

The Motion is granted in part as set forth herein.

Moving party to give notice.
