10	30-2026-01577309 Yang vs. Byun	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Demurrer to the Amended Complaint (ROA 30) and the Amended Complaint (ROA 20). The Court finds that Summit Office Park, Inc. v. United States Steel Corp. (hereinafter "Summit"), 639 F.2d 1278 (1981), is distinguishable from the facts in this case. Summit, an indirect purchaser, attempted to file an amended complaint after a Supreme Court decision saying that indirect purchasers had no cause of action under federal antitrust laws, to add two new plaintiffs who were purported to be direct purchasers and to change the cause of action. As indicated by the Summit Court, the circumstances of that case were unique
