

Here, this appears to be scheduling issues between the parties, particularly with both parties not responding to each other's inquiries. This appears to be moot because at the last IDC, the court directed witnesses to be produced by September 30, 2026. Even so, a formal order granting the motion does not preclude the parties from ensuring compliance, rather it requires compliance and formalizes the September 30, 2026 deadline to which the parties agreed at the July 17, 2026 informal discovery conference. The motion is granted and Defendants shall produce the witnesses for deposition no later than September 30, 2026

As for sanctions, because these deposition issues were resolved at the IDC, sanctions are inappropriate at this time.

CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2601725	LUA vs PLATINUM SALES AND SERVICES, INC.	DEMURRER ON COMPLAINT

Tentative Ruling:

The hearing on the demurrer and motion to strike is continued to a date agreed upon by the Court and parties.

Defendant is ordered to meet and confer in person, or via phone or videoconference with Plaintiff for the purpose of determining whether an agreement can be reached that would resolve the objections raised in the demurrers. As part of the meet and confer process, Defendant shall identify the specific causes of action that it believes are subject to demurrer and identify with legal support the basis of the deficiencies. Plaintiff shall provide legal support for their position that the pleading is legally sufficient or, in the alternative, how the complaint may be amended to cure any legal insufficiency.

After meeting and conferring, Defendant shall 15 days before the continued hearing date set above do one of the following:

- (1) vacate the hearing on the demurrer and motion to strike, and file an Answer;
- (2) file with the court a declaration stating the parties have agreed that Plaintiff will file a stipulation and amended complaint before the date set forth above; or
- (3) file with the court a declaration stating the means by which the parties met and conferred and identifying the specific objections in the demurrer and motion to strike and supporting memorandum of points and authorities that the parties were unable to resolve.
