25-PRO-01447	IN THE MATTER OF THE AUGUSTA H. MCPHERSON REVOCABLE TRUST DATED MAY 6, 1999	RE: Petition for Relief for Undue Influence and Status of Accounting for the Augusta H. McPherson Revocable Trust
Line 8	Petitioner: Bailin, Lorraine Judith (MARTIN, JOHN C. FRAZEE, AMY E.) Decedent: McPherson, Augusta H. Respondent: Mordecai, Pamela Ruth (CUMMINS, JAMES R. KANDA, AYA)	Status Hearing

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

The Court will address the following issues at the hearing:

POS filed by Mr. Nino for amended petition served electronically does not list the email address to which it was delivered. As such, the court does not accept it. However, there is a POS for delivery via mail of the amended petition to Respondent individually, and in her capacity as trustee of the McPherson Trust, reflecting a date of July 16, 2026. As such, Respondent Trustee of the McPherson Trust has 120 days from the legal date of service in which to comply with Judge Garratt's order to file and serve and accounting.

There is no filed copy of Respondent's declaration [although an unfiled copy is attached to Petitioner's "objection" filed 8/12/2026] as to when she began acting as trustee of the McPherson Trust. Respondent is to advise the court as to why the declaration was not filed with the court, as was ordered by Judge Garratt. The court reminds all parties that failure to comply with court orders is subject to sanctions and potential contempt.

As it relates to the aforementioned objection and request for evidentiary hearing, which Petitioner's counsel set for today's date, that is obviously not timely for what the Court deems as a new petition seeking relief. As such, the court is going to deny such request for hearing. But more significantly, a separate hearing on that discreet issue would not be an efficient use of court resources, as this is obviously a primary issue which can and should be addressed through discovery on the amended petition and at the time that any hearing on said amended petition would occur.

Pamela Mordecai, as trustee of the Fisher Trust, is ordered to appear and advise the court if she is representing herself, or if she has retained counsel.

Petitioner still needs to serve the Amended Petition on the Pamela Mordecai, as trustee of the Fisher Trust.

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED (Zoom not allowed)

There is no proof of service or consent for the petition for guardianship from siblings Roberto, Kimberly and Axel. Additionally, counsel has created a potential notice problem for all interested persons by filing on Aug. 4, 2026 amended petitions for guardianship and SIJF. The court is unsure of the nature of the amendments, other than to include a confidential declaration of minor. This matter was advanced at request of petitioner due to her impending 21st birthday, which is understandable. However, there are procedural impediments to granting the relief as requested based upon what is set forth herein. The Court will discuss these issues with counsel at the hearing.

26-PRO-00906	Estate of DATTATRAYA PURUSHOTTAM PARANJPE

Tentative Ruling:

NO APPEARANCE

There are many procedural deficiencies with this petition, and an amended petition will need to be filed and served on all interested persons. Petitioner has identified herself as the "administrator" but the decedent had a will naming her as executor. The caption must correctly identify her as such, and must match the information in item 2c. The will devises certain property to a trust, so a copy of that trust must be attached. If there are any other successor trustees, or dispositions to anyone other than the wife and children, those persons and/or entities are required to be served, and a proof of service filed. Petitioner has not answered items 3 (e), 3(f)(1), or 3(f)(2). A copy of the will must be attached to the amended petition. There is no proof of service on son Milind. The next hearing on the Amended Petition is set for October 5, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. The Court will not require further publication.
