Motion: Application of Laura Stemkowski to Appear Pro Hac Vice for Plaintiff

I. INTRODUCTION

Before the Court is the verified Application of Laura Stemkowski, a member of the South Carolina Bar, to appear pro hac vice on behalf of Plaintiff pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 9.40. The Court has reviewed the application, supporting declaration, notice of hearing, and proof of service.

For the reasons stated below, the Application is GRANTED subject to express conditions.

II. PROCEDURAL COMPLIANCE

Rule 9.40 governs admission of out-of-state counsel pro hac vice.

The Court finds as follows:

1. Notice. The application was properly noticed for hearing on August 20, 2026, in Department 11. Notice was filed September 29, 2025.
2. Verified Application. The application contains a verified statement by Applicant addressing the disclosures required under rule 9.40(d), including identification of jurisdictions of admission, disciplinary history, prior pro hac vice appearances in California, and acknowledgment of submission to California jurisdiction.
3. Association with California Counsel. Applicant has associated with Jennie Scudder Levin (State Bar No. 144354), an active member of the State Bar of California, who has appeared as counsel of record in this matter, as required by rule 9.40(a).
4. Service on the State Bar and Fee Payment. Applicant represents that the application and notice were served on the State Bar of California and that the required $500 fee was submitted pursuant to rule 9.40(f). The submitted confirmation dated September 24, 2025 reflects payment of $512.50, inclusive of a $12.50 processing fee.

The Court finds the procedural requirements of rule 9.40 satisfied.

III. SUBSTANTIVE REQUIREMENTS

Rule 9.40 permits admission pro hac vice upon a showing that the applicant:

- Is an active member in good standing of the bar of another United States jurisdiction;
- Resides outside California;
- Is not regularly employed in California;
- Is not regularly engaged in substantial business, professional, or other activities in California; and
- Has not engaged in a pattern of repeated pro hac vice appearances in California.

The Court makes the following findings:

1. Good Standing. Applicant is an active member in good standing of South Carolina Bar, admitted November 2016.
2. Residency and Practice Location. Applicant represents she is a resident of South Carolina, is not a resident of California, and is not regularly employed or engaged in substantial business or professional activities in California.
3. Disciplinary Status. Applicant represents she is not suspended or disbarred and is not currently subject to disciplinary proceedings.
4. Local Counsel Declaration. The declaration of Jennie Scudder Levin confirms her role as counsel of record and her agreement to remain responsible for the conduct of the case and compliance with California law and court rules.

There is no evidence before the Court suggesting misrepresentation, excessive pro hac vice appearances in California, or noncompliance with rule 9.40.

The Court therefore finds that Applicant has satisfied the substantive requirements of rule 9.40.

IV. DISCRETIONARY CONSIDERATION

Admission pro hac vice is not a matter of right but rests within the sound discretion of the Court. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.40.)

The Court finds:

- No prejudice to any party has been shown.
- No opposition has been filed.
- Applicant's participation appears to promote efficient representation of Plaintiff.
- Adequate local counsel remains responsible for compliance with California procedural and ethical requirements.

The Court therefore exercises its discretion to grant the application subject to conditions ensuring continued compliance with California law.

V. ORDER

The Application of Laura Stemkowski to Appear Pro Hac Vice is GRANTED, subject to the following conditions:

1. Continued Association with Local Counsel

Jennie Scudder Levin shall remain attorney of record. Local counsel shall maintain responsibility for compliance with all applicable California statutes, the California Rules of Court, local rules, and all orders of this Court.

2. State Bar Fee Confirmation

Admission is conditioned upon confirmation that the State Bar of California has received and processed the required fee pursuant to rule 9.40(f).

3. Submission to Jurisdiction

Applicant shall comply with the California Rules of Professional Conduct and is subject to the jurisdiction and disciplinary authority of the courts of this state and the State Bar of California for conduct arising out of this proceeding.

4. Scope of Appearance

Admission is limited to this action and does not authorize general practice in California.

The Court will sign the proposed order lodged concurrently with the application.

Any party wishing to contest this tentative ruling must comply with the Court's local rules governing tentative rulings and requests for oral argument. If no timely request is made, this tentative ruling shall become the order of the Court.
