

TENTATIVE RULING FOR JULY 2, 2026

Department R12 - Judge Kory Mathewson

Daniel S. Bryant, et al. v. Ford Motor Co., et al – CIVRS2400599

Motion: (1) Compel Depositions of Plaintiff Daniel S. Bryant and Sanctions
(2) Compel Depositions of Plaintiff Sharon L. Noonan and Sanctions

Movant: Defendant Ford Motor Company

Respondent: (1)-(2) Plaintiffs Daniel S. Bryant and Sharon L. Noonan

RULING: Motions to Compel (1&2) are GRANTED; Sanctions are DENIED.

Defendant, Ford - to provide Order(s) and give Notice.

In light of Plaintiffs' willingness to proceed with their depositions, Ford's motions to compel are granted. Plaintiffs' depositions are ordered to proceed on either July 13, 2026 or July 24, 2026, if those dates are acceptable to Ford. Otherwise, the Court will discuss with the parties agreeable dates for Plaintiffs' depositions and order them to occur on those dates.

Separately, regarding Plaintiffs' statement about not having yet deposed Ford's PMK, the fact Plaintiffs have not deposed Ford's PMK has no bearing on whether their depositions should proceed.

As to Ford's request for sanctions, though reasonable in amount, there is no evidence of a meet and confer in person, by telephone, or by videoconference after Plaintiffs failed to appear for the depositions noticed under the fourth amended notices that were set for January 29 and February 2, 2026. Recognizing Ford's argument of a code compliant meet and confer on an earlier deposition request, that effort needs to be repeated on subsequent amended notices. Had there been, the Court would have granted sanctions.

Dated: July 2, 2026

Judge Kory Mathewson