3:30 p.m. – Case Management Conference

SIERRA PACIFIC WAGE AND HOUR CASES

Case Number: 5235

Tentative Ruling on Case Management Conference: This Case Management Conference addresses the McDonald matter only. Both parties filed Case Management Conference Statements. Effective July 1, 2026, the Court no longer contracts with CourtCall for remote appearances. The parties are directed to the top of this document for instructions regarding remote appearances.

Motions: The Court currently has the following motions calendared:

- June 20, 2026 at 11:00 a.m. – McDonald’s Motion to Provide Further Responses

- July 27, 2026 at 3:30 p.m.-SPI's Motion to Compel Trial Plan (has not been filed)
- August 10, 2026 at 1:30 p.m. – SPI's Motion for Decertification
- August 17, 2026 at 11:00 a.m. – SPI's Motion for Clarification/Reconsideration
- November 9, 2026 at 1:30 p.m. – McDonald's Motion for Summary Judgment (has not been filed)

Regarding motions, the Court is no longer in a regular civil assignment. The Court previously provided instruction that any party that wishes to file a motion contact the Court's Judicial Assistant to obtain a hearing date. The Court has also provided counsel with several available dates and times for motions. Those times are not reserved until the parties actually confirm the date and time with the Court's Judicial Assistant. The parties should be aware that the Court is unable to keep any specific time open in anticipation of possibly receiving a motion but the above-listed dates and times have been confirmed.

Discovery: The Court appreciates the willingness of both parties to attempt to informally resolve discovery disputes. The Court remains open to Informal Discovery Conferences should the parties request assistance. If SPI agrees to the Informal Discovery Conference requested by McDonald, the Court will provide available times.

Trial Plan: As stated previously, Case Management Conferences are not the time nor place to address substantive issues that are subject of a motion. The Court will not rule on substantive issues and will not restrict a party from filing or moving forward with a motion based on a request made in a Case Management Conference Statement.

Case Management Conference: McDonald requests the next Case Management Conference be set on July 20, 2026. SPI requests sixty days from today. It does not appear that having several Case Management Conferences is necessary in light of the motions scheduled. The Court suggests the next Case Management Conference be on Friday, September 4, 2026 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 42 to coincide with the Smith matter.

The parties are ordered to meet and confer prior to the hearing regarding whether the parties can reach an agreement regarding an Informal Discovery Conference and McDonald's suggested timeline to address a trial plan and possible decertification.
