Respondents' Supplemental Brief re: Venue

Opposition to Motion to Transfer Venue to Sonoma County Superior Court; Declaration of Thomas R. Healy

First Account and Report of Trustee, and Petition for Settlement of Account, Instructions to Trustee, and Approval of Trustee's Fees

Opposition to First Account and Report of Trustee, and Petition for Settlement of Account, Instructions to Trustee, and Approval of Trustee's Fees

PREGRANT ORDER

This matter was continued from May 28, 2026 to allow both petitions to be heard concurrently.

The court on its own motion continues this hearing to August 19, 2026 at 9:30 a.m. in Department 22. Pending the re-set hearing the petitioner shall resolve the following issues:

As to the First Account and Report:

1. Petition, item 10: The trustee shall explain why she did not marshal the vehicles which belonged to the trust and the basis for her “information and belief” that the objectors agreed to the transfer of the Camaro to Bill Wilson.
2. Petition, item 13: The trustee shall explain how her requested fees of $54,841.13 complies with California Rules of Court, Rule 7.776 and Solano County Local Rules, Rule 7.101(b) which states in part: “The petition shall provide the asset value of the estate used to calculate compensation and shall explain why that value is appropriately used.”
3. Schedule C: The trustee shall explain why she did not distribute the Lovall Valley Court house to the specified beneficiaries until January 22, 2025 when she distributed the Eureka Avenue house to Bill Wilson on January 23, 2024. The trustee shall explain why it took an extra year to distribute the specific gift.

Opposition to First Account and Report of Trustee:

No issues noted.

As to the Notice of Motion to Transfer Venue:

The moving parties shall explain why the attorney’s office is not a valid place of administration for the purposes of venue.

As to the Opposition to Motion to Transfer Venue:

The Opposition is not signed by the trustee as required by Probate Code section 1020.
