

CV-25-007782 CORTES, ALEXANDRA MEZA vs SINGH, GURWANT –
Plaintiff's Motion to be Relieved as Counsel re: Lorena Cortes Arellano -
DENIED without prejudice.

County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 21

Hearing date: 2012-04-02

Motion: It is unclear to the Court that the clients received appropriate notice of this hearing. The notice of motion initially bore the hearing date of July 1, 2026. That date was crossed out—presumably, by the clerk's office—and replaced with August 20, 2026. However, there is no amended notice of motion or proof of service for such a notice in the court file. Furthermore, the Court gave notice to Moving Counsel on August 7, 2026, that this hearing was re-set from August 20, 2026, to August 27, 2026. But again, there is no corresponding proof of service for an amended notice of hearing to the clients. Furthermore, under rule 3.1362(d) and (e) of the California Rules of Court, a proposed order must be served and lodged with the Court at the time the moving papers are filed. Here, the proposed order was lodged six days after the moving papers were filed. Moreover, the proposed order submitted on that date bears the wrong client name—Plaintiff Alexandra Meza Cortes instead of Plaintiff Lorena Cortes Arellano. The following are the tentative rulings for cases calendared before Judge Stacy P. Speiller in Department 22:
