Moving Parties: Plaintiffs Alejandra Palestino and Alejandra Palestino, as Successor in Interest ("Plaintiffs")

Responding Party: None

Tentative Ruling

The Court agrees the related matters should be consolidated for the following reasons: (1) they all involve the same facts, (2) they all involve the same defendants; (3) they all involve the same causes of action; (4) they all claim damages; (5) they are all filed in the same courthouse; (6) they are all filed in the same county; and (7) they are all filed in the same department.

Plaintiffs further state that consolidating the Related Cases would avoid the duplication of time, money, judicial resources and the risk of inconsistent rulings. Moreover, Defendants contend that they have complied with the procedural requirements of a consolidation motion pursuant to Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.350.

No proposed order was filed in this case. An order granting or denying the motion to consolidate is required to be filed in each case under CRC 3.350(c).

Further, the Court has no record of the filing of a notice of motion to consolidate in Case Nos. 25LBCV02258, 25LBCP00431, 25LBCP00432, 25LBCP00439 and 26LBCV00123 as required by CRC 3.350(1)(C).

The instant motion is CONTINUED to September 4, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. for Plaintiff to comply with the requirements of California Rules of Court, rule 3.1350(1)(C).
