The Court has received and reviewed the Notice of Related

Case filed on 8/5/26, seeking to relate 26STCV07114 and 26STCV15480.

CRC 3.300(h)(A) controls, and the complex department with the earliest complex case determines whether the cases are related.

After review of the cases and files, the Court finds that Case Nos. 26STCV07114 and 26STCV15480, are related within the meaning of California Rules of Court, rule 3.300(a). 26STCV07114 is the lead case. For good cause shown, said cases are assigned to Judge Elaine Lu in Department 9 at Spring Street Courthouse for all purposes.

The court reminds the parties that at this juncture, the cases have only been related and have not been consolidated. Accordingly, any stipulation, joint status report or other document that applies to both cases must be separately filed – once in each case; it will not suffice to file such document only in one case.

All parties in all related cases (26STCV07114 and 26STCV15480) are ordered to appear for a status conference on 9/18/26 at 8:30 am. This will be an Initial Status Conference as to both Case No. 26STCV07114 (which was already previously assigned to Department 9) and Case No. 26STCV15480 (which is hereby transferred to Department 9 by way of this minute order). All other dates are advanced and vacated.

All parties in all related cases (26STCV07114 and 26STCV15480) are ordered to meet and confer regarding any stipulations that may be reached regarding sharing of discovery that already has been exchanged in each of the related cases and coordination of the remaining discovery by all parties to all related actions so as to avoid duplication of discovery efforts (written discovery and depositions). By no later than 9/11/26, the parties must file a jointly proposed omnibus Case Management Order addressing the balance of discovery and discovery motions for all related cases. Please include a timeline and deadlines for filing class certification motions. If the parties cannot reach agreement on all issues, the parties may file a Joint Status Report re Discovery and Case Management that sets forth the respective position of all parties.

In 26STCV15480, the Court makes further orders pursuant to the "Initial Status Conference Order" signed and filed this date. The parties in 26STCV15480 are ordered to file a Joint Initial Status Conference Report in compliance with the Initial Status Conference Order by no later than five court days prior to the Initial Status Conference. Do NOT use the Judicial Council Form CM-110 (Case Management Statement) for this purpose.

The Judicial Assistant is to give notice to the Moving Party who filed the notice of related cases, and the Moving Party is ordered to give further and formal notice to all parties in all cases that are listed in the notice of related cases and file proof of service of such.
